Acheson Urges Prompt OK on Arms Aid, Fears Aggression

Would Block Russia

Claims Reds At Crossroads

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Secretary of State Acheson told Congress today the United States should begin promptly to help rearm western Europe because "the possibilities of direct military aggression" by huge Soviet forces cannot be ignored.

Leading off the administration's drive for congressional approval of a $1,450,000,000 arms aid program, Acheson pictured western European countries as living under the shadow and constant fear of Russian armies which are the greatest the world has known in peacetime.

He also suggested that Russia is approaching a crossroads in its policies toward the west where it may have to choose whether to continue trying conquest of political means or to resort to "military means."

Acheson appeared before the House foreign affairs committee to make his plea for the arms program, already under attack by influential Congress members.

DAMAGES RECOVERY

Acheson said "the mere presence" of the large Russian forces "has had a psychological effect that has been damaging to recovery and stability, and has been a major influence in the loss of freedom and self determination in important areas of Europe.

"Nor can the possibilities of direct military aggression be ignored," he said. "When political aggression fails, as it has failed so far in western Europe, totalitarian regimes are often tempted to gain their objectives by military means, particularly when they consider that no effective resistance is possible.

"It is our aim to forestall that possibility by making it clear that military aggression against the nations of western Europe can be undertaken only at great cost and with no assurance of success."

Acheson repeatedly told the committee that if this country would back up the pledges of the North Atlantic treaty with military assistance he believes peace would be secured and no aggression would dare take on the whole combination of western powers.

"The fundamental pledge of the treaty, that an attack on one signatory will mean an attack on all, closes the door to piecemeal aggression," Acheson said.

The bulk of the proposed arms aid would go to pact nations.

Acheson said in the light of treaty pledges and with the arms program he did not believe "any aggressor at this time would dare" to take the "desperate gamble of an all-out war.

Police Smash Policy Ring

COLUMBUS —(INS)— William Ryan, 35, Charles Evans, 48, and Fred Jones, 58, were free on bond today, charged with promoting one of the "large" Columbus numbers game.

Vice squadmen raided the east Columbus house yesterday afternoon and picked up two large sacks of numbers slips for the days play, and other equipment including two boxes of blank slips and a number of baseball lottery slips.

Ryan was identified as the operator of the house and the other two were said to be "pickup men."

Police said they found many torn and partially burned slips, probably representing earlier days' play in the basement and furnace.

Open Steel Inquiry

NEW YORK — (UP) — President Truman's fact finding board opened its inquiry into the national steel wage dispute today by denying the companies' request that the "bargainability" of pensions be considered separately from other issues.

Old Sites Yield To Progress

Three old Mansfield landmarks are giving way to the city's progress as wrecking crews tear down their old walls today to make room for new developments.

One of the buildings, a house at 46 West Fifth street, is 100 years old. Before it was purchased recently by the Hart Oil company it and the adjacent house on the corner of Mulberry and Fifth streets were owned by John Dow, 564 Park avenue west.

Dow's father, William Dow, the contractor who built the Reformatory before the turn of the century, bought the buildings many years ago. The corner house was built about 1890. It had nine rooms and the West Fifth street dwelling 10.

The two houses are being wrecked to be replaced by a modern Socony Vacuum station which will occupy the 170 by 60-foot corner lot.

FOR PARKING LOT

Another old house is being torn down on 131 North Walnut street to make way for a parking lot for the Loyal Order of the Moose which has its building at 141 North Walnut street.

The filling station will be under construction by September according to Ralph Hart, an officer of the company. The Hart concern has four other stations in Mansfield and others in five area counties.

The new station will have a three bay lubritorium, will be built of masonry covered with porcelain enamel. The building itself will be 80 feet long.

Another new filling station is being built at the corner of Mulberry and West Fourth streets by the Standard Oil company of Ohio. The structure will replace the present, two-bay station with a four lubrication bay building and display room.

The cost will be between $65,000 and $75,000 according to Di-

Lewis Edict Under Fire

WASHINGTON—(AP)—The Senate Banking committee today held open the door to John L. Lewis to answer the attacks made upon his United Mine Workers' three-day work week.

The miner chieftain has been under attack in the committee all week from coal operator witnesses.

They have variously said that (a) the three day week was imposed upon them; (b) that it will mean higher consumer coal prices; (c) it is a tactic designed to shrink coal stocks and put Lewis in a better bargaining position, and (d) Lewis "clubs" them at the bargaining table.

The committee, at the request of Senator Robertson (D.-Va.) is looking into coal operations, the three-day week, and the UMW's activities.

Robertson, who has been acting as presiding officer at the hearings, told a reporter last night that Lewis, Thomas Kennedy, UMW vice president, and John Owens, union secretary-treasurer were being invited to testify.

Previously he had said no invitation would be extended to the mine union, but that its officials could testify if they wished.

Urges Senators To Hear Baruch

WASHINGTON —(UP)— Republican Leader Kenneth S. Wherry asked the Senate appropriations committee today to hear elder statesman Bernard M. Baruch before reviving the administration's foreign aid money bill.

After four days of heated debate, the $5,573,724,000 appropriation measure was sent back to committee late yesterday on a parliamentary technicality.

SUNSHINE MAIL—Frances Prosser smiles happily from her bed at General hospital as she looks over some of the more than 75 cards and letters which began arriving at the hospital after a story in the Sunday News-Journal appealed to Mansfielders to drop a line to the little girl. Frances, nine-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Wilbur Prosser, 734 Burger avenue, was severely wounded in the right thigh when a 12-gauge shotgun was accidentally discharged at her home a week ago last Monday. The family physician said the "sunshine mail" has done much to improve the little girl's morale.

Seek 12½c Wage Boost

Steel Union Bares Demands

NEW YORK — (UP) — CIO President Philip Murray disclosed today that the fourth-round wage increase demand of his 1,000,000-member United Steel Workers of America (CIO) is 12-½ cents an hour.

Murray's disclosure came as he opened the union's case before President Truman's fact-finding board which is sitting in an effort to find a settlement in the dispute between the union and the nation's steel industry.

The fourth-round wage demands of the union had not been disclosed before. Murray told the board that the union's proposals "contemplate a total cost to the companies of 30 cents an hour."

"These encompass 12-½ cents per hour in wages currently payable; 11.23 cents per hour in wages deferred for pension, and 6.27 cents per hour for social insurance," Murray said.

The steelworkers union is one of three key industrial unions which have set the pattern for the three previous rounds of post-war wage increases.

Lausche Still to Act on 15 Bills

COLUMBUS — (UP) — About 15 bills passed by the 98th Ohio General assembly were left today for Gov. Frank J. Lausche to act on before the legislature returns for final adjournment tomorrow.

Among the bills still on his desk awaiting action was the uniform municipal court measure, the $99,000,000 capital improvements act, the $18,000,000 local governments fund act and the state employe's job and salary reclassification act.

Buys Car With Proceeds

Father Sells Tiny Daughter For $500

BESSEMER, Ala. —(UP)— An unemployed miner was held for investigation here today after he admitted selling his two-and-one-half-year-old daughter for $500 and spending the money on a used car.

Police said that Leman Alvin Edwards, 26, signed a confession admitting that he sold his daughter, Viree, for adoption.

Edwards also admitted in his statement that another daughter, 16-month-old Sandra Lee, was up "for sale."

W. H. Sessions, operator of the Stadium grill here, said he had started adoption proceedings for Viree but added that the $500 he gave Edwards was a gift rather than a purchase payment.

Sessions and his wife said they wanted to give the little girl a good home and had paid Edwards the $500 in hopes that he would leave town and stay away from the child.

When questioned by newsmen Edwards denied that he intended to "sell" Viree but admitted that he spent the money on a 1936 model automobile.

And Edwards' wife denied that the younger daughter is "for sale."

Hugging little Sandra Lee close, Mrs. Edwards told newsmen that she was willing to scrub floors, wait on tables or do anything to keep my baby."

She said, however, that she was glad the Sessions family were going to adopt Viree.

Edwards was arrested and held without bond, pending investigation, when neighbors asked juvenile court authorities to look into "unusual conditions" at the Edwards home.

Bares Part In Racket

NEW YORK — (AP) — Under heavy protective guard, Dennison Duble, resigned Cincinnati banking official, was questioned today about an alleged $50,000,000-a-year numbers racket ring that cheated its players.

A spokesman for District Attorney Frank S. Hogan's office said last night that Duble had made a formal statement admitting he juggled the daily figures of the Cincinnati Clearing House association.

The manipulation of the bank clearing figures helped the numbers ring cut its payoffs enormously.

Duble, one of 17 persons arrested since Monday in New York, New Jersey and Cincinnati arrived here by plane late yesterday in custody of officers.

After questioning by district attorney's men last night, Duble was taken to a hotel under heavy detective guard.

When he arrived at La Guardia field, Duble was surprised by the presence of newsmen and photographers.

"What's all this monkey business about?" he asked.

Congress Triumphs In Fight

Will Have Voice In Atom Plans

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Congress members appeared today to have won a major victory in the hot dispute over their right to help decide whether atomic secrets are to be shared with other nations.

Lawmakers greeted with obvious satisfaction the presidential olive branch held out yesterday at a closed door meeting of State department military, atomic and congressional policy makers.

Mr. Truman told the Senate-House Atomic committee through Secretary of State Acheson that he feels any action on the share-the-atom issue must have the support of both Congress and the executive branch of government.

A vital factor in the question of sharing the nation's A-bomb secrets with Britain and Canada is the fact that the United States is largely dependent on those countries for its supplies of uranium—the material that makes atomic weapons possible.

Announcement of the President's position, as outlined by Acheson, was made by Senator McMahon (D-Conn.), chairman of the joint committee, following the 90-minute meeting in a secluded Senate office room.

McMahon's statement further disclosed that Acheson, acting on presidential instructions, had outlined a plan for "maintaining the status quo" and also for conducting exploratory discussions with the British and Canadians.

Senator Hickenlooper (R-Iowa) ranking GOP member of the joint committee, said he understood Acheson's plan to mean the United States would not divulge any atomic secrets on a "higher level" than at present. And this level, he told a reporter, is "far below" that involving bomb and industrial information.

Prosecution Scores Win

Convicts Numbers Racket Figures

CLEVELAND — (AP) — The prosecution has scored its second victory in a drive against gambling rackets here. There were signs that police bribe-taking might be its new target again.

A jury of nine women and three men last night convicted Willie Hoge and Arthur (Little Brother) Drake of extortion. They had heard evidence since June 27 and deliberated less than two hours.

The two men were accused of threatening and muscling their way into the Goldfield policy house, a numbers game operation.

Common Pleas Judge Julius M. Kovachy sentenced each to a penitentiary term of one to five years and a fine of $1,000. He denied bail.

It was a victory for Alvin J. Sutton, assistant safety director who headed the investigation.

He promptly praised Mayor Thomas A. Burke and Gov. Frank J. Lausche.

"When others might get scared it's getting too hot," or when he heard someone's house had been blown up, the mayor just said "Keep on going", said Sutton. And sometimes the mayor accompanied Sutton in midnight talks with witnesses who "might get out of line," the former FBI agent added.

Governor Lausche helped by getting "Baldy" Harris to talk when he was in prison, continued Sutton. Harris was a former Drake-Hoge chauffeur who turned state's evidence.

Wants Hubby At Home For Stork Visit

COLUMBUS — (AP) — An 18-year-old expectant mother ill with infantile paralysis wants her marine husband home from France for the big event in about 17 days.

Mrs. Fred Schluep contracted polio nine days ago. Children's Hospital says her condition is fair. She last saw her 19-year-old husband in January.

Columbus Red Cross officials are trying to get him here in time.

Drowning Victim's Rites Set

Hamilton Baby's Funeral Friday

Funeral services for Barbara Jean Hamilton, 17 - months - old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Hamilton of Stewart road, R. D. 4, who drowned yesterday when she fell into the pit of an outdoor toilet, will be held at 10 a. m. Friday at the Wolford funeral home.

Coroner D. C. Lavender said the child died of drowning and that she had been dead nearly an hour before found.

Deputy sheriffs, Randall Bliss and Harold Aston, who investigated the fatal accident said the baby was found about 1 p. m. by Glenn Worley, 13. The Worley youth is the son of Joseph Worley, owner of the farm on which the Hamiltons reside.

Deputies said they believed, from reports of the family, that the baby and a sister, Judy, three years, had gone into the outbuilding and that the older child had left the baby there. They said the baby apparently had fallen into the pit while climbing up on the seat.

The mother of the child, who was inside the house, said she missed the baby about 11 a. m. Colleen Hamilton, a cousin of the child's father, said she was washin clothes behind the house about 11 a. m. and saw the two little girls playing with the pigs.

An extensive search of the neighborhood was carried out before the child was found. The child was rushed to the state patrol post by Joseph Worley. She was pronounced dead on arrival at General hospital.

The baby was born in Morehead, Ky. on Feb. 18, 1948. Besides her parents, she is survived by the sister, Judy, 3, and another sister, Doris Ann, five months.

Funeral services will be conducted by E. N. Callicoat and burial will be in Mansfield cemetery.

French Liner Again Reigns As Sea Queen

NEW YORK — (UP) — French officials were host today to hundreds of visitors aboard the luxury liner Ile De France on its first visit to New York after a $25,000,000 reconstruction job that turned it from a troop carrier into a queen of the seas again.

Flags waved from deck to funnels as visitors strolled about the decks inspecting France's bid for the most luxurious ship afloat.

The "Eel," as she is called in shipping circles, on her first crossing as a passenger liner since 1939, docked at 5:30 p. m. yesterday after a ceremonial crossing of the harbor.

Jack Bisco, vice-president and general business manager of the United Press, was one of the passengers on the liner's ceremonial crossing. He said there was no doubt that France had made tremendous strides toward economic recovery.

"This ship is symbolic of what the French are doing generally," Bisco said.

Solicitor To Offer Proposal

Farmers Battle Charge Boost

City Solicitor C. J. Kalbfleisch said today he would "definitely recommend that the city hire a rate expert" to study the Mansfield Telephone company's application for a rate increase.

The city solicitor said he had discussed with Service-Safety Director Earl T. Garrison a trip to Columbus for a talk with Public Utilities Commission officials about the method the commission uses to investigate rate increase applications.

"However, we have not been able to make the trip as yet," Kalbfleisch said. "The application of the telephone company is undoubtedly colored to its advantage," he added.

A meeting will be held with council's utilities committee for further discussion of the action before any recommendation is made directly to city council, Kalbfleisch said.

No date has been set for that meeting, and the city solicitor said he wasn't sure anything would be ready for council at its Aug. 3 meeting.

COMBINES PROTESTS

Co-ordination of all protests to the application was recommended by the city solicior.

He said any person or organizations planning to protest the application should contact city council's utilities committee. Chairman of that committee is Nelson Swihart.

"We can get these protests all together and hit the application from all angles," Kalbfleisch said.

Poor service, crowding a large number of subscribers on one line, and the telephone company's profit, were some of the "angles" that Kalbfleisch said would probably be used.

Meanwhile the Richland County Farm Bureau last night authorized Mansfield Attorney David R. Arbaugh to study the application on its behalf.

The attorney will report to the Farm Bureau at its Aug. 10 meeting. Following that report the organization will map plans for further action.

Farm Bureau spokesmen asked that rural subscribers with complaints about telephone service contact the bureau headquarters here. The protests of rural subscribers, whether or not they are Farm Bureau members, will be incorporated in the protest.

Girl Freed In Killing

WAUKEGAN, Ill. — (UP) — Pretty 17-year-old Joyce Schumaker, found innocent of murdering her 53-year-old married lover, said today she will become a missionary.

A jury of six men and six women deliberated a bare half-hour before finding the tall blond innocent of charges that she murdered Carl Reeder because he refused to get a divorce and marry her.

During testimony yesterday, the girl told how Reeder, a clerk at the high school she attended, pursued her until she submitted to intimacies with him.

But she contended that after she learned he was "married and old enought be my grandfather" she tried frequently to break off the affair.

She denied that she sought to have him get a divorce to marry her.

The wan, pale beauty said Reeder was killed accidentally when she used her brother's pistol in an attempt to frighten him into staying away from her.

Her attorney, Sidney H. Block, described Reeder in his final statement as a "moral leper who started on a carnal quest and pursued it with tiger tenderness."

State's Attorney Harry A. Hall admitted "it is not easy to prosecute a girl like Joyce Schumaker."

The 'Not-So-Gay Nineties'

City Swelters, Storms Hit Michigan, New Jersey

The temperature waltzed into the "Not-So-Gay Nineties" yesterday again—reaching a high mark of 93 in the afternoon.

That temperature was recorded at the Mansfield sewage treatment plant. The airport reported a high of 90.

A chance of some relief from the heat and humidity was offered by Cleveland weatherman, A. S. Klemetso. But he added: "Don't blame me if it doesn't materialize." As he explained it, a cool air mass is developing near Montana. "If it moves fast enough," said he, "we may get some relief about Saturday."

The possibility is "somewhat provisional," he added, because the movement of an air mass as far away as Montana is hard to predict. For the present, Klemetso said, there will be little change from the torrid, unpleasant weather conditions either today or tomorrow. The temperature will again go into the nineties and chances for rain are very slight.

He did say there might be showers in the extreme north portion, "but they will be of little help." Temperatures soared above the 90-mark everywhere in Ohio, except Canton, with an 89 top.

The high was 96 at Chesapeake. Toledo recorded 95. The heat wave touched off violent storms that killed three persons at Milwaukee, but did little to lower temperatures.

The storm there was part of a general thunderstorm area extending over Wisconsin and Michigan last night. The storm hit shortly after dark and swamped fire and police departments with hundreds of emergency calls.

And in Hasbrouck Heights, N. J., a violent and freakish thunderstorm swept a woman down a gutter and into a sewage culvert to her death. Witnesses said the drowning occurred when Mrs. Edna Michel, 54, tried to cross a deep torrent of water in a gutter.

Educational Aid OK Seen

WASHINGTON — (INS) — A house committee is expected today to approve quickly a 35 million dollar school health bill providing federal funds for both public and private schools.

The measure by majority whip Priest (D) Tenn., appears to be the only aid-to-education legislation standing a chance of House passage this session.

Priest predicts it will receive strong support from both Republicans and Democrats in the interstate and foreign commerce committee and on the floor.

Sawyer Optimistic On Business Outlook

WASHINGTON — (UP) — Secretary of Commerce Sawyer believes there is little danger of a depression at this time unless businessmen and the public get jittery.

In an interview on the Columbia Broadcasting system's capitol Cloakroom program last night, the Cincinnati cabinet member said present falling prices and rising unemployment seem to be nothing more than a leveling off process.

Walter Lippmann

U. S. Must Pick Areas To Be Defended

As we prepare to discuss military aid, we may say I think, that our first and most important problem is to decide between two kinds of commitments The first is what territory we shall commit ourselves to defend The second is what territory we shall only guarantee against aggression

Both kinds of commitment are backed by the determination to wage war against an aggressor But the difference between them is of great practical and strategic importance

Thus, if Panama were attacked, we would make a serious stand in the Canal Zone and we would also fight a general war. But if West Berlin, which is covered by the Atlantic pact, were attacked, we would make only a token defense in Berlin as we mobilized to fight a general war.

In Panama we are committed to a guarantee plus a pledge to defend In West Berlin we are committed to a guarantee without that pledge

In meeting our obligations under the Atlantic pact, we have to decide what we shall treat like Panama and what like West Berlin These are hard decisions But in the conduct of a great coalition they are unavoidable

Ideally of course, we would wish to give every country not only a guarantee against aggression but a reliable defense against invasion At times, when our rhetoric has been exuberant, we have seemed to be telling the world that we meant to create local defenses everywhere to contain the Soviets at every point where they might move in But as a matter of fact, it is quite impossible to do that

If it were attempted seriously it would mean that we had committed immense forces all around the periphery of the Soviet Union — from Japan and China through Southeast Asia and the Middle East to the Balkans Germany, and Scandinavia This would be a method of strategic suicide

For while we were committing our resources all around the borderland, the Russians would retain their whole army as a mass of maneuver We, on the other hand, would have our forces earmarked for local defense, frozen dispersed and largely useless

By undertaking to defend too much territory, we should have impaired fatally the effectiveness of our guarantee to go to war if any country becomes the victim of military aggression.

We must not think therefore that the allocation of military aid is like the allocation of Marshall aid In theory at least, we have tried to allocate enough dollars to each country to make it possible for that particular country, by self help and mutual aid to become financially solvent

But in allocating military aid we cannot make every country solvent that is to say impregnable in a military sense To many countries we can give only the guarantee we give for example to West Berlin — that we will go to war if it were attacked It is impossible to give them the kind of guarantee which we give to Alaska, Hawaii or the Canal Zone

The working principle should be, it seems to me, that we undertake to defend by building up local military power in those countries which can contribute the most to our power to make good the general guarantee to all countries

We should supply the greater part of our military aid to those countries which can, when armed, themselves become guarantors against aggression.

Moth-Killer Wrecks Rugs

COLUMBUS — ? — Exterminators at Ohio State university's department of entomology have a powerful new moth killing chemical ' but they'd be too embarrassed to talk about it—if they could be found.

It seems the unidentified bug killers recently went over carpets and rugs in the campus home of Dr Howard L Bevis, university president It's not sure how many moths they killed But the potent chemical made the rugs and carpets look as if someone went berserk with a scissors

The rugs are full of holes including one nearly three feet wide right in the middle of the living room Where the chemical touched tile in the bathroom, the finish also was damaged.

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Fire Chief Barney J Houston said Tuesday he was convinced a fire which partially destroyed a car barn of the Cincinnati Street Railway company was the work of an arsonist

Sullivan Seeking Telephone Loan

COLUMBUS, O —(INS)— The Sullivan Telephone company asked the State Utilities commission yesterday for authority to borrow $3 000 at five per cent interest for "rebuilding the lines from a ground circuit to a metallic circuit"

The company said its note would be secured by a mortgage

Company President J N Ringler and Secretary B Stein signed the application which said the company was too small to submit a balance sheet but that its total value as determined by commission engineers at the time of its last rate increase in 1948 was $23 917.

Inland Steel Company Blasts Truman's Fact Board

Claim Move A 'Bad One' For Nation

Declare No Wage Boost Justified

CHICAGO — (UP) — The Inland Steel company said yesterday that a wage increase is not justified at this time in the steel industry and asserted that appointment of a presidential fact-finding board to handle the steel contract dispute is not good for the nation.

The company's views were given by Edward L Ryerson, chairman of the board of directors, in a quarterly report to stockholders.

His statement was issued just 12 days after Mr. Truman's 60-day truce proposal averted a steel strike at least until September and one day before the President's fact-finding board was scheduled to open hearings in New York on the contract dispute with the CIO United Steel workers.

"The company felt obligated to cooperate with the President, but it believes that the superseding of collective bargaining by politically - appointed boards is not a good thing for country," Ryerson said

"The union has demanded a "substantial" wage increase but has not named any figure," he said "In the company's opinion no wage increase is justified at this time.

"The company now faces the necessity of appearing before a board appointed by President Truman, which may establish a new pattern for all industry through the medium of recommendations to the President."

The company's net earnings for the quarter ended June 30, 1949 were off 24 per cent while sales dropped 10 per cent, he said.

The second quarter net income was $7,033,304, or $1 43 per share of capital stock outstanding a decrease of $2,220,926 from first quarter net income of $9 254,230 Net sales for the second quarter were $90,943,873.

Angered Father Kills Former Pastor Who Married Girl, 15

TAMPA, Fla —) — A former Baptist preacher yesterday was shot to death and police said the shooting was admitted by the father of a 15 - year - old organist with whom the churchman eloped recently.

The Rev. John P Lane, 35, died in a hospital shortly after he was fired upon following a brief street argument in downtown Tampa.

Detective Inspector D D Stephens said Ward C Cornelius, 52 father of Mrs Lane, was arrested for questioning When advised Lane was dead, Stephens quoted Cornelius as saying

"Thank God for that"

When taken into custody Cornelius, Stephens reported, said "Well, I did it — is he dead? You won't have to use any guns I'll go peaceful" Cornelius is a railway baggage employe

When told that none of the five bullets which poured from his pistol had struck anyone else on the crowded street, Cornelius said "I'm glad of that"

Cornelius said he drove alongside Lane's car at a traffic light and tried to talk to him The former minister remained silent Cornelius stepped out of his car and walked toward his son - in - law He said he fired when Lane appeared to be reaching for something

Lane recently had been engaged in boys work for the YMCA here He had been married before and recently was criticized by the Tampa Bay Ministers association following the elopment

Lane and the former Miss Ann Cornelius eloped to Ashburn, Ga , and were married in June The pretty girl at the time was a high school sophomore She formerly played the organ in Lane's church

Customer Resistance Climbs, Pork and Lamb Prices Drop

Pork prices were headed downward this week after climbing irregularly at the retail level for more than two weeks

Lamb also eased a few cents a pound in many places, reflecting customers' price resistance. Other meats and poultry held generally unchanged Top grade eggs edged up two to three cents a dozen in some market centers where unusually hot weather was a factor.

Produce prices varied widely from section to section, depending on local supply and growing conditions A wide quality range was noted in many items, particularly tomatoes, corn, lettuce and celery

Compared with last week - end, wholesale port prices were four to six cents a pound lower this week Meat buyers said supplies continued seasonally small but were still more than ample to meet the narrow demand Although choice loin chops, for example, were quoted as much as six to 10 cents higher in a few retail stores early this week trade sources said shoppers could expect moderate price cutting in most competitive markets by the week-end

Peaches apples carrots, cucumbers, potatoes watermelons and eggplant were more abundant and lower priced Somewhat higher were canteloupes, honeydews, lima beans and peppers

The agriculture department's production and marketing administration headlined plums as a "most plentiful" food for this week, reporting the indicated crop substantially above average this year California's production was estimated about 20 per cent above average, and the Michigan crop about 25 per cent higher.

Fresh and frozen fish also were spotlighted on the plentiful list, both for this week and for the month of August The nation's stock of frozen fish at the beginning of this month was around 112 000 000 pounds, compared with 100 000 000 a year ago and the 1944-48 average of about 87 000 000 Good fishing weather this summer also has kept fresh fish landing at a high level the administration noted

Get Driver Training Teachers

2 From City Go To Akron Institute

Vern Hoffman and Howard Herrick, Senior high school teachers, will join 43 other Ohio school teachers in a Training Institute in High School Driver Education and Training, it was announced today

The institute will be held in Akron next week. The 45 teachers attending from various sections of Ohio will spend the week studying the procedure for setting up these courses in their high schools.

They will be taught the step-by-step method of behind-the-wheel training and prepare themselves to teach their pupils to drive efficiently and safely

In the fall the schools from which these teachers are sent will inaugurate courses adding their number of the 194 already in existence in the state

CHARLES PUISHIS HELPS YOU FIND THE BREW YOU WANT HE RUNS THE MACHINES WHICH PUT THE IDENTIFYING LABELS ON EVERY BOTTLE OF BURKHARDT'S.

Like stamping "STERLING" on silver

P-22

from the HEART of the hops

Charles Puishis is running the machine which puts the Burkhardt labels on our bottles . . . the labels that smile at you and almost say, "Here's the beer you like and it tastes exactly the same as it did yesterday—the same as it will tomorrow".

For we have the greatest number of friends we ever had . . . all looking for the Burkhardt label . . . all counting on it to identify the superb flavor they've known and liked for so long.

You can ask Charlie to verify this, if you like He's been with us for seven years and is proud that he hasn't missed a day in all that time. He's been working on the labelers, as you see him doing, in the picture, for more than four years. He's a steady man and he thinks his present job is the best he's ever had.

He worked in the rubber shops for quite a long time And he was a farmer for about 20 years—quite a successful farmer, in fact.

Charlie was born in Lithuania and came to the United States with his brother-in-law when he was just a youth. The way he is regarded by his fellow Lithuanians in this country is shown by the offices to which they have elected him

First, he is president of the local chapter of the Lithuanian Benefit Society, a national organization. He is also president of the Lithuanian American Citizens Club, a local organization whose membership consists only of naturalized citizens.

Charlie's job might look easy to some people, just watching the bottles parade into the machine on one side and come out on the other side shining and bright with their "identification papers". But Charlie has to concentrate on it.

He knows the care and skill and pride that goes into the brewing of every individual bottle of Burkhardt's before it comes to him. He knows also that it's important for a bottle of good beer to look inviting—because then it seems to taste even better!

We're proud of the way our men take such a pride in their work, trying to heighten your enjoyment of Burkhardt's. They are our strongest boosters.

Every one of them knows the complete story of how Burkhardt's is brewed and how the flavor is guarded until you're ready to enjoy it.

And every one of them invites you to enjoy a bottle of Burkhardt's tonight.

Unceasing Comfort In Suburban Life
Cheerful good living is reflected in every room of this 7 room brick home. The decorations are sophisticated and yet formal. Thoughtfully planned for a heap of living. Each room has an individual tone. There is a restful beauty in the Wedgewood blue living room. The spacious dining room is in decorators handpainted wallpaper. The kitchen and breakfast rooms are done in warmy chestnut and contain every facility for efficiency and convenience. The entire home is teeming with interesting features such as, first floor powder room, large walk-in wardrobe adjoining the master bedroom, spacious cedar lined closet, swankily recreation room, with ventilating fan, marble top bar, storage space for card tables. We could go on and on and yet not cover all the details. This charming house is shaded by well-placed trees, a profusion of shrubs and flowers, embelish the large lot with 2 car garage.

HERE is a pleasant little game that will give you a message every day It is a numerical puzzle designed to spell out your fortune. Count the letters in your first name If the number of letters is 6 or more, subtract 4. If the number is less than 6, add 3 The result is your key number Start at the upper left-hand corner of the rectangle and check every one of your key numbers, left to right. Then read the message the letters under the checked figures give you.

"GLORIA" STRIKES — The typhoon called "Gloria Okinawa," which roared over the island this week left the guest-house of the Ryukus Headquarters Command flattened (above). Several deaths, injuries and damage estimated at $20,000,000 were left in the wake. Navy reports from Tokyo say the "Gloria" also paralyzed Shanghai where downtown streets were under 2 to 4 feet of water.

Driver Fined, Loses Permit

John David Knight, 65, of 108 South Glenn avenue yesterday was fined $75 and costs and his right to drive suspended for six months when he pleaded guilty to a charge of driving his car while under the influence of alcohol.

Knight was arrested by police last Sunday at 8:30 p. m. on Lexington avenue and entered a plea of innocent in court Monday morning. However, he changed his plea to guilty when he appeared before Acting Municipal Judge J. V. Will yesterday.

Charles Harris, of 224½ North Main street, was fined $5 and costs for driving his car without having an operators license when he appeared in traffic court yesterday.

Ohio Cities Told to Apply for Housing Funds Without Delay

Tax Measure Faces Test

Waiver Feared Unconstitutional

WASHINGTON — (AP) — The Public Housing administration said today Ohio cities will be wise to apply for federal housing funds without waiting for their courts to untangle pending legal complications

A waiver of rights to tax the property is required by the federal government before permitting any housing authority to share in the public housing funds. Question has been raised in Ohio whether a new state law permitting such waivers is constitutional.

Marshall Amis, general PHA counsel, told a reporter, "My advice to all Ohio cities which want to participate in the program is to go ahead and file applications.

Amis said PHA forms on which to apply for preliminary loans for surveys and planning will be ready soon

Toledo, Dayton, and Akron already have indicated officially their desire to launch new public housing projects under the PHA program The federal agency believes several others also will apply.

Already in existence, a spokesman said, is a "postwar shelf" of plans for public housing projects desired by eight other Ohio cities. They are listed as Cleveland, whose planners want to build at least 6,000 family units, Cincinnati, 2,850 units, Columbus, 1,548, Youngstown, 935, Struthers-Campbell, 350, Lorain, 310; Portsmouth, 250 and Elyria, 160

The construction will take 90 days Tarr said About 12 men will be employed at the new station, the station's manager Ronent building

Gasoline and oil service will be maintained during construction the stateion's manager Ronald Dove announced.

The Hill-Top drive in, owned by William Elias, is scheduled to open next week. The building just at the crest of Ashland hill cost about $60,000. About 85 can be seated in its air-conditioned dining room. There are several leather upholstered booths with stools along the counter.

All the kitchen and cooking equipment is in stainless steel The building is double insulated and has an acoustic, fire resistant ceiling

The Shelly Smith company, 348 Ashland road is building a $10,000 addition to its garage The project is expected to be completed in September when Smith will celebrate his 26 years in the business there with a grand opening

The addition which will be 50 by 100 feet is primarily for a Mack truck agency for which Smith will be an exclusive dealer in the area

The building will have a brick exterior with the inside of tile It was started in April this yea

Dr J A Reed, of Butler who recently purchased the brick house at 177 Park avenue west has made considerable improvements to the building and grounds. A new black-top driveway has been laid and a parking area in the rear constructed D Reed's plans for the building are not definite yet, he said.

The property formerly belonged to Mrs Ida M. Harbeson, now deceased

Pair Fined For Junk Theft

Theft of junk copper from the Malo Brothers junk yard at 114 Longview avenue, resulted in fines for a youth and a man who pleaded guilty today in municipal court to petit larceny charges

Fined $25 and costs each were Roy Davis, 18, rear of 756 Bowman street, and Paul R McGraw, 30, of Marion The junk, valued at $10 50 was taken Tuesday, police said

John A Connell, 22, of 135 Park avenue east, was sentenced to 30 days in the county jail, and ordered to pay costs, by Acting Judge James V Will for operating an automobile while his driver s license was suspended

Week's Sales Tax Revenue Gains

Sale of prepaid sales tax receipts showed an increase over a year ago for the week ended July 16 in Richland county with a total sale of $31,476. State Treasurer Don H Ebright reported today.

The figure represents an increase over a similar period last year when the total sale of tax receipts was $30 010 Revenue for the year however, is running behind last year.

LUCKY STRIKE MEANS FINE TOBACCO!

Tests made by America's largest cigarette research laboratory scientifically help Lucky Strike buyers select the fine tobacco that goes into Luckies!

YOU SEE HERE the largest and most complete laboratory of its kind operated by any cigarette manufacturer in America

For many years Lucky Strike scientists have delved into cigarette research on an extensive scale Out of this has grown an elaborate system of quality control Every step in the making of Luckies—from before the tobacco is bought until the finished cigarette reaches you—comes under the laboratory's watchful eye

As you read this, a constant stream of tobacco samples from every tobacco-growing area is flowing into the laboratory in Richmond, Virginia These samples are scientifically analyzed, and reports of their quality go to the men who buy at auction for the makers of Lucky Strike

Armed with this confidential, scientific information—and their own sound judgment—these men go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco This fine tobacco—together with scientifically controlled manufacturing methods—is your assurance that there is no finer cigarette in the world today than Lucky Strike!

This man knows where fine tobacco grows. Here is one of Lucky Strike's tobacco-buying supervisors gathering sample leaves from a curing barn Such samples are obtained from every tobacco-growing area and sent to the laboratory for pre-market analysis No wonder — L. S./M. F. T.— Lucky Strike means fine tobacco!

This scientist knows how to test tobacco. In our Tobacco Control Division, samples sent to the laboratory are subjected to scores of analyses to determine smoking quality This vital testing, both before and after tobacco is purchased has been conducted for years still another guarantee that Lucky Strike means fine tobacco.

Reports received. The laboratory sends results of the analyses to the buying supervisors' This information helps the buyer go after finer, lighter, milder tobacco for Lucky Strike Thus the judgment of the buyer at tobacco auctions is combined with modern science at the laboratory to assure you that Luckies are a finer, milder cigarette.

We know.
LUCKIES PAY MORE

Higher Pay Or More Jobs?

EXTENT of industrial unemployment is naturally associated in the public mind with present efforts to force a fourth round of wage increases for those who have been so fortunate as to retain their jobs.

While there are mixed views as to whether or not readjustment can be accomplished with no more than a tolerable recession, rather than such a disastrous depression as was being moved toward at this time of year in 1929, sound judgment is an urgent need at this stage of the inflationary period if prices, wages and profits are to be leveled off without repetition of the sorrowful experience of twenty years ago.

It cannot be doubted that many would-be buyers of various items of merchandise have been "priced out of the market" already, and that this had been largely responsible for cuts in production and resultant unemployment.

If a policy of raising wages of organized workers, to maintain a balance with high prices, is to be continued, it cannot be escaped that an increasing number of people—limited to moderate income—will be unable to buy many of the things they want and need, and that there will therefore be further cuts in production and greater unemployment.

General Electric, in a bulletin presenting reasons for opposing a fourth round of wage increases, says: "The main issue, not just at General Electric but all over the country, can be stated very simply: What course of action gives the best promise of providing the largest number of steady jobs to GE employes—and to employes everywhere."

It is further noted that increases in wage costs of a few prominent employers will spread across the country as a "pattern", regardless of how much the first wage increase appeals are based on individual employer's "ability-to-pay."

Noting the relationship between wages and prices, the bulletin concludes: "We need to offer more and more attractive prices while maintaining present high wage rates. We need to expand and improve our facilities. We need to create still more appealing products. We need to sell harder. . . . For our part, we are certain we are on the right track, and we want to keep on trying in the interests of employes, customers, suppliers, merchants, stockholders, government, and public."

As this picture of plans and purposes is presented it should be taken into account that it is intended to spread beyond the bounds of any one organization and applies, in a broad way, to the whole field of employe-employer relations—with the general welfare taking precedence over either.

Bill Vaughan in the Kansas City Star suggests: "After the question of what race, religion and birthplace would be best for the new Supreme Court justice there may still be time to consider a few minor matters, such as does he know any law."

Announcement is made of an electrically operated window for standard installation in houses. Now what is really needed is one that will close automatically when a rain threatens to splatter the sills and curtains.

Harry Wade concludes that: "Federal aid to education at this stage can do little for the quiz contestant who is stumped by what large city on the Hudson river has the initials N. Y."

With suspicion of communist infiltration into higher educational circles it may be hoped that "the little red schoolhouse" is not to be succeeded by the big red college.

Now comes the story of an author who wrote so convincingly on "the advantages of poverty" that he received no pay for the article.

Germany's Danger Spot

By THOMAS L. STOKES

WASHINGTON—Paul G Hoffman, ECA administrator, put his finger on one of the major problems in Europe today that directly involves her recovery and security, and our own future security, in his defense before the Senate appropriations committee of the dismantling and removal of excess steel plants from Germany as provided in the April 13 agreement among us, Great Britain and France.

What he said is extremely important, for it shows the unwisdom of the new "softness" here toward Germany which is reflected at this time in a movement in Congress to check plant dismantling in Germany.

This "softness" is being exploited by the powerful cartel and monopoly interests which backed Hitler's war of aggression and furnished its weapons and which are covertly seeking to re-establish their control over the economy of Europe.

Mr. Hoffman said:

"The greatest thing that could happen to Europe, in my opinion, is to have competition between the French and English steel industry and the German steel industry, and whatever influence we can bring to bear is in that direction.

"Why? Because, in my opinion, the great dampener in prewar Europe was the cartel and the monopoly. In other words, you had a complete accord between the steel industries of the various countries. You had a division of the markets. We had all the things that shrink markets.

"Now insofar as our influence can be brought to bear, it is in the direction of bringing to light information on which the countries can base intelligent programs, and secondly, to bring competition into the European picture.

"If we do not succeed in that, these countries may go right back to the old idea of monopoly and cartels."

* * *

Tremendous Power.

HIS warning is most timely, for at this very time negotiations are under way by powerful steel industry leaders in Germany to tie into steel and other properties elsewhere in Europe through interlocking investments which would revive the cartel system against which Mr. Hoffman warned.

Steel is a great profit-maker and powerful in politics and finance. It is also the basic essential in making war. The story has been told here many times how Germany formed those international cartels in strategic materials, dividing up world markets, restricting production, controlling prices.

They not only permitted her to build herself up industrially, financially and militarily, but they hampered our own defense, when war came, through the shortage of necessary materials that they caused. It all started just after the First World War in preparation for the second. It is beginning again.

It is strange, in the face of all this, that some members of Congress are naively lending themselves to an attempt to stop the dismantling of plants for removal to our allies as reparations, where they contribute to recovery, or destroy because of their war potential.

Referring to negotiations leading to the recent international agreement which, of itself, provides far less dismantling than originally agreed among the victorious allies, Mr. Hoffman said:

"Entering into the negotiations was this question of security. In other words, the French and the British and the Belgians were very much concerned about having too great a concentration of steel capacity in Germany. They felt they would not be safe unless they did get some of this equipment moved out of Germany into other countries!"

But steel is powerful, and international in its grasp.

So — business as usual.

Looking Back

Twenty Years Ago Today

Sunday, July 28, 1929

Cutting of weeds in alleys and vacant lots was being urged as health measure.

Largest crowds of the year were at city parks seeking relief from excessive heat.

Mrs. Sarah L. Stevenson, 71, died while visiting sister in Lakewood.

Mr. and Mrs. Fred B. Wolff and Sheriff and Mrs. Ralph A. Schad motored to Michigan for two weeks outing.

Son was born to Mr. and Mrs. Peter Schambri, Orange street.

Isaac B. Fisher, 87, Civil war veteran, died.

John M. Schroeder left on two weeks vacation trip to Cincinnati.

Employes of Stuhldreher Floral company held annual picnic at Sugar Grove park.

Dave Boone Says:

A NEW justice of the Supreme Court is about to be named and I hope we get a fellow who understands the law and can get at what it really means without much trouble.

* * *

The appointment is in some ways as important as the election of a president. This court shapes the destinies of America and tells us all what we may and may not do.

* * *

Once it pretty generally agreed on things but for the last 10 years it has been issuing an opinion per judge, and sometimes two for the same jurist.

* * *

The photo finish has become as common as on the race tracks. It destroys respect for a court when five justices say "You're out!" and four yell "Safe by a mile!"

* * *

This is one job now open to which no politician, white-haired boy, Missouri pal or just another fellow who has trouble understanding a given set of facts should be named.

Speaking of Your Health

First Drug To Treat TB

By HERMAN N. BUNDESEN, M.D.

WITH the advent of streptomycin, medicine gained its first drug remedy against certain types of tuberculosis.

And yet, useful as it is, streptomycin is only partially victorious against the germs which cause this dread disease. Although almost miraculously effective in some cases, it is, sadly enough, without value in others.

Streptomycin is one of our growing number of antibiotics, of which penicillin is perhaps the best known. These substances act to restore health either by checking the growth of germs or by killing them outright.

The great amount of work done with streptomycin indicates that it is effective only in certain stages of the disease and against certain strains of tuberculosis germs.

Most Effective.

Streptomycin is most effective where the disease itself is most active, in tubercular infections which are discovered early and which are fairly extensive and progressing rapidly.

It is especially helpful in cases of acute tuberculous pneumonia which spreads rapidly through the lungs or in cases of longer standing where there are areas of great destruction in the lungs.

Even in these cases streptomycin is not of indefinite benefit; after a few months, the tuberculosis germs seem to become resistant to it. For this reason it is essential that streptomycin be given during the time when the germs are most susceptible to its action.

Streptomycin seems to be best used as an aid to other forms of treatment, and is particularly helpful when given after collapse therapy, that is, the injection of air into the chest cavity to collapse the lung. The lung may also be collapsed by surgical measures.

The use of streptomycin would not appear to be advisable in chronic cases of tuberculosis where a great deal of scar tissue has formed, nor does it as yet seem to be of any value when the condition has progressed to a late stage. It is also apparent that it should not be employed in early, slight infections.

Tuberculosis may also affect the larynx or voice box, the bronchi, the trachea or windpipe, as well as the bowels and ears. In these cases, streptomycin is of value and is given by injection into a muscle.

Food Is Uppermost In Minds of Britons

By JOHN H. MARTIN

BERNARD BARUCH wants "a return to blood, sweat and tears in the field of economics" today in Britain and other west European lands whose people walk unsteadily on the Marshall aid plan crutch.

"Mr. Facts," as the late President Wilson called his trusted first world war adviser, paraphrased the famous war cry of his old friend, Winston Churchill, upon his return home from Europe.

Churchill's conservatives and British Liberal party members whole-heartedly agree with Baruch that the Laborite government is spending too much time "nationalizing and socializing" instead of producing.

Baruch noted that England is in a "peculiar" position since she produces only one-fourth of her required food.

This is the heart of England's crisis. Anything about food makes headlines in Britain today. The subject often dominates parliamentary and local election debates.

A few days ago Dr. Edith Summerskill, deputy laborite food minister, clashed with a member who ridiculed the laborite "Dollar Blue Plate Special" meals to which restaurants are limited.

Conservative member Edward Keeling maintained the five-shilling limit for three courses was not the limit—in practice—that restaurants legally and easily dodged that either by charging for the presence of "entertainment—meaning four jaded chorus girls"—or by adding a little syrup to the strawberries.

Dr. Edith, an angular defender of the laborite faith, not long ago went to a local election debate in London. Her experience with a red-haired woman heckler sums up much of Britain's plight as many economic statistics do not.

Dr. Edith started out bravely after first weathering the eyes of women appraising her smart but not-too new-look dress and plumed hat. She said:

"There are two subjects which I understand thoroughly."

Several hecklers interrupted and shouted: "Snoek and marge."

(Snoek is a canned fish detested by many Britons, marge is margarine.)

Dr. Edith: "That's a bit worn out now. I refer to my old love, health, and my new love, food."

The red-head: "Whew."

Dr. Edith: "This lady should remember that you can get psychiatric treatment free now (under the nationalized health service.)

"This government has introduced more reforms."

The red-head: "More forms (to fill out), you mean."

Dr. Edith: "We have practically fulfilled all of our 1945 promises."

The red-head: "We have never been in such a state."

Dr. Edith: "Madam, when I look at you, I am tempted to think you are right."

The two women had to be kept apart at this point.

Washington Merry-Go-Round

McCarran Would Import Sheepherders

By DREW PEARSON

WASHINGTON — Senator Pat McCarran, of Nevada, whose name means "keep out" to Europe's homeless refugees, actually begged the Senate the other day to admit 250 more people into this country.

It turned out, however, that he only wanted sheepherders to tend flocks in the west. McCarran wanted to import them, not from displaced - persons camps, but from the Pyrenees mountains along the Franco-Spanish border.

This was a curious request coming from McCarran who, alone stands in the way of 400,000 displaced persons (including 5,000 sheepherders) who wish to start a new life in the United States. As chairman of the Senate judiciary committee, he has been able to block a bill rectifying the 80th Congress' D P. Act which discriminated against Jews and Catholics.

Thus, senators were a little baffled at the spectacle of the gentleman from Nevada pleading to raise the immigration bars. In fact, he almost got down on his knees.

"There is no more important bill on the calendar than this one," begged McCarran. Fervently, he described the plight of the west's neglected sheep and the need for sheephearders from abroad.

But Sen Robert Hendrickson, New Jersey Republican, gave McCarran a taste of his own medicine.

"As I understand," remarked Hendrickson slyly, "there are in some of the displaced-persons camps over 5,000 sheepherders."

He blocked the bill.

Bets With Power Lobby.

THE private power lobby took Senator Elmer Thomas, Oklahoma Democrat, out to the race track to celebrate after he put across their big victory over public power in the secrecy of the Senate appropriations committee.

Thomas led the fight behind closed doors to cut off funds for transmission lines, to carry power from government-built dams to the public, leaving it to the private electric companies to distribute government power—with higher rates to consumers and bigger profits to the companies.

So, the day after Thomas won this fight, he was treated to a royal evening at the Laurel, Md., race track. His hosts were ex-governor W. J. Holloway, $75-a-day lobbyist for Oklahoma gas and electric, and Richard K. Lane, president of the Public Service Company of Oklahoma—the same lobbyists who have been dictating Thomas's vote on public power.

The party bet generously on the harness races, but the senator lost money—proving that he isn't as good at speculating on horses as on the commodity market. His wife, however, cleaned up.

Xavier Cugat's Comeback.

SUAVE, Cuban-born bandleader Xavier Cugat is a handy man with a fast comeback and he also knows his Latin-American politics.

This was proved not long ago and his orchestra had just finished a sensationally successful engagement. Musicians, singers, arrangers, and the genial conductor were waiting in the Lima airport cafe for the plane which would take them to the next stop on their current South American tour.

One of the saxophonists' wives had a Pomeranian dog in her lap, elaborately brushed, beribboned, and perfumed. The girl was making an affectionate fuss over her pet, while a group of Argentines at the next table looked on in patent disgust.

Finally one of the latter remarked in loud tones: "Some people raise dogs instead of children."

Fixing the speaker with a level stare, Xavier Cugat snapped: "Yes and some countries have presidentas instead of presidentes."

The Argentines, few of whom are enthusiastic about the lady who more and more rules their country — Senora Peron — lapsed into red-faced silence.

* * *

Medical Advice From AP.

FEELING under the weather, Senator Joe McCarthy, Wisconsin Republican, called at the congressional medical room the other day for free advice and treatment—as is his senatorial privilege.

For four days McCarthy visited the doctors and loaded up with pills. However, they couldn't diagnose what was wrong. Then the senator happened to bump into Associated Press reporter Jack Bell, who asked about his health. McCarthy complained, described his symptoms.

"Sounds like you've got virus pneumonia," warned the reporter.

The senator rushed back to a hospital. Sure enough, the doctors found he had virous pneumonia.

Merry-Go-Round.

PRESIDENT TRUMAN'S latest candidate to head the National security Resources Board is Dwight Palmer of General Cable company—an A-1 man. . . Senator McGrath has just received proof that friends of Dixiecrat Governor J. Strom Thurmond offered $50 to Negroes if they would go out and buy tickets to the Democratic committee's South Carolina Jefferson-Jackson day dinner at which Vice President Barkley spoke. . .Democratic leaders continue to vow they will keep Congress sweating in Washington until Labor day. . .Secretary of Defense Johnson will inspect Canada's artic defenses next month. . .The United States has threatened to cut off its $100,000,000 loan to Israel unless Arab refugees are sent back to Palestine. Present-Day Blondes

By INEZ ROBB

NEW YORK — Gentlemen still prefer blondes — particularly if they are self supporting, have good jobs and are predisposed to shower down with gold cuff links, diamond watches or other gentlemanly knick-knacks.

In the twenty - five years since she wrote that great American classic, "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes", a gentleman's preference has not changed, in the opinion of Anita Loos.

But his financial situation has, what with income taxes, surtaxes and five - percenters all over the place. So a blonde today is practically on her own, Miss Loos has observed. Gentlemen find them as difficult to maintain in these trying fiscal times as a yacht or a private Pullman car.

"It is a sad sociological note and one doubtless fraught with social significance, but the blondes have had to go to work in this generation just like brunettes have always had to do", said Miss Loos as she sipped a lemonade at the Plaza.

"I should live so long!" gloomily added the author, a petite, half-pint brunette. "If I were not a brunette and perfect lady, I could name a dozen young blondes now toiling in the Hollywood salt mines who would never have had to do a lick of work if only they had been born twenty-five years earlier."

Miss Loos' voice dropped an octave.

"There are really no k-pt w-m-n anymore", she said. "Women clamored for equal rights for years. Well, they have them now! The only persons in our present economic set - up who can afford to keep anyone are these rich widows whose husbands die and leave them a residuary share of Fort Knox. You know the kind — women with old emeralds and young men."

So Miss Loos figures that "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" is not only a great philosophic treatise but a period piece of the good old days. It is with this in mind that Miss Loos is transforming her magnum opus into a musical comedy scheduled for fall production.

The larcenous Lorelei, gold - digging heroine of GPB, and her brunette friend Dorothy are being set to music by Jule Styne, who wrote the music for "High Button Shoes", with lyrics by Leo Robbin, and a book by Miss Loos and Joe Field. Agnes de-Mille will direct the dancing, and John C. Wilson (Noel Coward's American man Friday) the whole production. Very high class stuff.

* * *

Popularity Continues.

THE WHOLE production is to be done in the razzmatazz period of 1924, when GPB first appeared in print in Harper's Bazaar.

I asked Miss Loos if the musical comedy would contain Lorelei's immortal words: "Kissing your hand may make you feel very good but a diamond bracelet lasts forever."

Indeed, yes, said Miss Loos. And just so the lesson will not be lost on the current generation of impressionable blondes, one of the songs in the show will be dedicated to this theme. It is starkly titled "Diamonds Are a Girl's Best Friend."

Although as a brunette Miss Loos does not feel any too charitable toward blondes, she believes she is the only woman who ever made a fortune out of a blonde gold digger, circa 1924. "Gentlemen Prefer Blondes" has earned more than $1,000,000 to date for its author.

Brunette - like, Miss Loos lost most of this swag in the stock market crash that wiped out so many gentlemen and so many blondes in 1929. (Don't be alarmed. Miss Loos has been one of Hoolywood's highest - priced writers for almost twenty years.)

Twenty - five years after its first publication GPB still earns pleasant annual royalties for Miss Loos. It has already been through 42 editions in the United States and a forty - third will appear this autumn.

Blondes may have fallen upon evil days in which they have to earn their own keep, but they are still No. 1 on the hit parade with gentlemen.

"With a brunette, hard times are always here", said Miss Loos with finality, "but if there are good times, a blonde has 'em."

Frankly Speaking

Poll Tax Is Up Again

By JAMES MARLOW

WASHINGTON — Like the birds in the spring, the anti-poll tax bill comes back every year.

It attracts attention and then goes away, only to come back another day.

That's just about what will happen to the anti-poll tax bill just passed by the House. It can't become law unless the Senate also approves, and the Senate almost certainly won't do that this year.

Then the bill will bob up again next year. Four other times in recent years the House has approved an anti-poll tax bill.

Each time it died in the Senate. It can always be passed in the House with ease because:

Northern Democrats and Republicans, on the issue anyway, join forces to swamp the southern Democrats who fight the bill.

The southern Democrats can be stopped cold in the House where there's a limit on debate.

It's a different story in the Senate where debate is unlimited and the southerners, with a filibuster, can talk for weeks and jam up the whole Senate program for the year.

If anyone tries to bring up the House-passed bill in the Senate this year, which is unlikely, the southerners seem able to block it with a filibuster.

Congress wants to quit for 1949 by September. Between now and then the Senate will have its hands full with other things. A filibuster would wreck the schedule and the vacation hopes.

Yet, an anti-poll tax bill has been offered in Congress every years for the past 10 years. Volumes have been filled with the testimony of hundreds of people who have trudged up to the Capitol to speak for or against the bills.

The poll tax problem has been argued so along that every time the bill comes up in the House for a vote, both sides say the same things they've been saying for ears. It's like listening to a phonograph now.

This bill passed Tuesday is aimed at wiping out the poll tax in seven southern states where it has to be paid before a man can vote. Those states are Virginia, Arkansas, Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, South Carolina, Tennessee.

* * *

Same Old Arguments.

BRIEFLY, some of the main arguments go like this:

For the Bill — no one should have to pay a tax to vote; the tax keeps millions of poor whites and Negroes from voting at all; it keeps them, particularly the Negroes, from having a voice in their government; because the tax keeps people from voting, southern congressmen represent only a comparatively small percentage of their people, the ones who do vote.

Against the Bill — states have a right to make their own voting laws; its's unconstitutional for Congress to interfere with them; besides, southern whites and Negroes should be allowed to work out their own problems without northern interference.

Each year's death of a poll ax bill is a blow to the Negro and other organizations which have been fighting for years to get the tax wiped out in the South.

But they'll keep plugging away next year to get a bill finally passed, just as the southern Democrats will plug away to see that it isn't passed.

So it seems likely we'll be hearing about the poll tax for years to come, although both Democrats and Republicans, in their 1948 campaign platforms, promised to wipe it out.

Clean-Up Campaign Bares Odd Items

Discover 'Invitation' To Impeachment

WASHINGTON—Did you ever stop to take inventory of some of the things you may have in your attic, or stored away in the basement, which might cast interesting sidelights on history?

Most people have not, and that is just one of the reasons why much attention was focused on a group of Washingtonians, heeding a "cleanup" campaign appeal, who did delve into their long forgotten relics.

One Washingtonian turned up a card admitting the bearer to the U. S. Senate for the "Impeachment of the President." The date was May 26, 1868. The President was Andrew Johnson, who succeeded to office following the assassination of Abraham Lincoln.

Another interesting find was a mail order house catalog for the spring of 1903—truly a barometer of the times. The catalog was found in an attic by Miss Louise McCormick, a federal government employe.

In that same attic were found a cobbler's bench, lathes for shoes, and many old papers, including the catalog.

The 46-year-old volume listed such interesting items as hunting jackets for $1, men's shoes for $1.50, stoves (honestly made) for $15.89, men's shirts for $1 and kitchen tables for $2.95.

Along with the table item was the interesting caption, "must be good to have sold 2,000 without a single complaint." Compare these prices, if you've got the heart, with the advertisements in your local newspaper today.

The pass to the impeachment trial now belongs to Mrs. William Dawson, whose uncle, a Washington attorney, witnessed the proceedings which missed by one vote of throwing President Johnson out of office.

The uncle, John Wesley Smith, was in Ford's theater the night Lincoln was shot to death by actor John Wilkes Booth.

As a memento of this historic tragedy, Smith left a 50-cent bill on which is written that it was "taken in at box office night Lincoln was assassinated."

Oddly enough, it was for attempting to carry on the policies of the "great Emancipator," that Johnson faced the impeachment proceedings.

Johnson, a Tennessee "war Democrat," was a Unionist and refused to follow his state into the Confederacy. His selection as vice president by the Republicans to run with Lincoln in 1864 was because the campaign managers wanted a candidate who would draw some Democratic votes.

History records Johnson as being persistent, honest and perfectly sincere. Unlike Lincoln, however, he completely lacked a sense of humor and was extremely stubborn.

Under the Lincoln-Johnson plan for peace and reconstruction of the south, the southern states held constitutional conventions following the war between the states. They annulled their ordinances of secession, abolished slavery and repudiated debts contracted on account of the Confederacy.

Radical Republicans in Congress, however, refused to go along with this "mild" chastisement of the southern states, and set about to "reconstruct" the south under an entirely different principle.

Thus it was under the radical leadership of Charles Sumner and Henry Wilson in the Senate, and of Thaddeus Stevens in the House, that Congress set up its own reconstruction program.

It was under this program that the Negroes, just freed from bondage, uneducated and ignorant, were given the ballot and the reign of the carpet baggers was supreme.

When Johnson vetoed the various congressional measures, he drew upon himself the wrath of the Republican radicals, who passed the measures over his veto and then set about to unseat the president himself.

The radicals, in their frenzy to prevent Johnson dismissing Republicans from office and thus setting up a following of his own within the government, passed the Tenure of Office Act.

When Johnson attempted to "fire" Secretary of War Edwin M. Stanton, the matter came to a head.

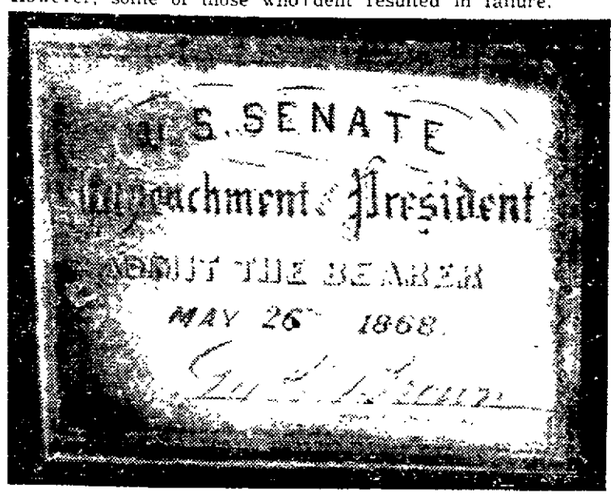
The vote to impeach the President came in the House of Representatives on Feb. 24, 1868. It was based on a long list of alleged misdemeanors, chief of which, of course, was the removal of Stanton from office.

The "trial" in Congress ran from March 30 to May 26, with Attorney Benjamin F. Butler in charge of the prosecution.

The proceedings, surcharged with politics, came to an end with a Senate vote of 35 to 19 against convection. This was just one vote less than the two-thirds majority necessary.

However, some of those who voted against Johnson said later that they were simply voting to censure him and that they actually could find no cause to vote against the President for any action he had taken while holding office.

Thus the only attempt in American history to impeach a President resulted in failure.



THE PASS—President Johnston escaped conviction by one vote.

Men With Wives Are Best Tippers

OMAHA, Neb. — (UP) — The man who takes his wife to dinner is the most liberal tipper, according to six candidates for the "prettiest waitress" contest here.

The women were finalists during the Nebraska Restaurant Association convention.

They said that with the exception of the man out with his missus, diners are holding on to their cash more tightly than during the war.

Their average tip, they said, now is 10 per cent of the bill.

Allergy Not Classed As Good Reason

LOS ANGELES — (UP) — Being allergic to one's husband is not grounds for divorce, Superior Judge Ray Breckman held Tuesday.

Mrs. Joyce G. Holdridge, 27, appealed yesterday for a divorce from her husband, Nolan Howard Holdridge, 26 - year - old watchmaker, because she was allergic to him.

"Every time I'm near him," she said, "I break out in a rash from my head to my toes. It's painful."

She said she took treatments for two years by psychiatrists finally advised her to leave her husband.

"Was he good to you?" the judge inquired.

"Yes."

"Did he support you?"

"Yes."

"Well," said the judge, "under the law, I don't believe being allergic to one's husband's grounds for divorce. It's not cruelty on his part."

For The Ladies: A Diet That Really Works

We went out visiting the other night and the ladies were talking away about weight-reducing diets. One of them had a special "15-day Hollywood diet" guaranteed to slim her down fifteen pounds' worth. Another was living on bananas and skim milk!

I might have known the missus would get the bug, too, and sure enough the other day she asks me, "Joe, what kind of a diet do you think I ought to go on?"

"Mother," I says, "the only diet I would ever recommend to anyone is simply moderation. I wouldn't trust any of those get-thin-quick diets. Simply cut down on desserts, bread, butter, sweets and fats—but when you do, even do your cutting down moderately."

From where I sit, moderation is the watchword. Moderation with food, with smoking or with the enjoyment of a friendly glass of temperate beer or ale. Actually, moderation adds to the enjoyment of just about anything.

DEVOTIONS AND PROGRAM GIVEN BY MRS. W. B. LINN

Twenty-two Members and One Guest Attend St. Paul's Missionary Society Session

MRS. W. B. LINN was in charge of devotions and the program, "Lutheran Work Around the World," given at the Women's Missionary society of St. Paul's Lutheran church. The meeting was held Wednesday afternoon in the church parlors.

Assisting Mrs. Linn were Mrs. Harry Bolley, Mrs. Ed Pankow, Mrs. Ernest Thomas, Mrs. Earl Verzy, Mrs. Charlotte Damlos, Mrs. Carl Wander and Mrs. Don Borchardt. They gave reports of the missionaries in India, China and Japan.

Mrs. Pankow listed the new committees for the coming season. The auditing committee is composed of Mrs. Paul Lee, chairman, Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. John Gensel.

The twenty-two members and one guest, Mrs. Sophia Boehman, were served refreshments from a long table centered with arrangements of summer garden flowers. Hostesses for the afternoon were Mrs. Thomas and Mrs. Earl Lake.

On August 10 Mrs. George Hoffman, 466 Lexington avenue, will be hostess at a silver tea. She will be assisted by Mrs. Bolley. The next regular session will be August 31 in the church. Mrs. Henry Beilstein will lead devotions and Mrs. William Ferguson will have the topic. Mrs. Hoffman will be hostess.

Care Necessary In Cosmetic Packing

The ideal cosmetics to take with you on your vacation are those which do not leak, spill, or break.

Instead of jars or bottles, take screw - capped tubes whenever you can. Shampoo, deodorant, anti - sunburn, dentifrice, hair-groom and nail polish remover are now available in tubes, and make excellent traveling companions.

To save space and weight, take compressed disposable face cloths, compressed face powder, powdered perfume, folding tooth brush, traveling-sized hair brush.

A good investment in your vacation wardrobe safety is the fitted cosmetic kit that allows space for extras, or the train case, small as a portable radio, that securely holds all cosmetics.

If you must take bottles containing liquids, put them in a rubber - lined punch bag or a zippered plastic bag, like those used to store food in the refrigerator, suggests CHARM. Screw-top bottles should be resealed with adhesive tape, especially before high altitude flights.

Jolly Makers Entertained In Bellville

Mrs. Ralph Frost, of Bellville, entertained eight members of the Jolly Makers club at her home Wednesday evening.

The business session was conducted by the president, Mrs. Carl Boyd. At this time plans were made for a family day picnic supper to be held August 14 at the home of Mrs. Frost. Entertainment and prizes for the children were planned.

Cards were the diversion of the evening. Prizes were awarded to Mrs. David Meeting, and Mrs. Wendell Palm. Luncheon was served on the dining room table, by candlelight. The table was centered with bowl of mixed garden flowers. The appointments were orchid and green.

The hostess was presented with a gift of a pendant necklace by her secret pal, in celebration of his ninth wedding anniversary.

Friends Fete Miss Dalton

The second in a series of showers honoring Collette Dalton, bride-elect, was held recently at the home of Miss Helen O'Donnel, 145 Stewart avenue. Co-hostesses were Miss Pat Tryon and Miss Betty Streitmater.

Appointments in peach, white, and green crepe paper were used for the buffet luncheon. A floral centerpiece and lighted candelabra decorated the scene.

There were seventeen guests present. For diversion, a bride's book was made.

Miss Dalton will be married to Robert J. Kurtzman, August 27, in a formal ceremony at 9 30 a m at St. Peter's Catholic church.

Committees Convene With Mrs. Davidson

Mrs. Gerald Davidson, West Fourth street, was hostess to committee members of Beta Kappa Tau sorority to begin arrangements for the benefit bridge and style show being sponsored by the group on September 19.

The affair will be held at Westbrook Country club during the afternoon and evening with professional models taking part in the show.

Those on the committees are co-chairmen of the affair, Mrs. Jack Slaybaugh and Mrs. Davidson; refreshments and decorations, Miss Patsy Heath, Mrs. Robert Yeager, Mrs. Ralph Rogers and Mrs. Clarence Pollock; hostesses for the afternoon and evening, Miss Elizabeth Denig, Mrs. Charles Saprano, Mrs. James Elliott and Mrs. Cedric Matthias, and tickets, Mrs. Charles Campbell.

The next regular meeting of the sorority will be held August 4 in the clubrooms at the Y.W.C.A.

Hose To Add Slim Look

Seam-free nylon stockings add the needed touch of symmetry to complete the uncluttered simplicity of the new Fall fashion silhouette. . .the straight, slim "look!"

The new trend is the pencil-slim line. Interpreted in a wide variety of fabrics, including nylon taffeta, nylon sheer, faille and velvet, the style is expected to have wide acceptance.

Prices for all buying levels, it is predicted that the new skirts will be shorter, averaging 13 inches from the ground. Dresses and suits with back closings, leading the field for the season, will feature buttons and zippers, heightening back-interest attention, and focusing the eye on the hemline and heel and hosiery.

Seam-free nylons will therefore be a perfect complement for the new fall shoes. Important shoe designers say they will feature open-back-and-toe lines flattering to the foot and ankle and requiring seam-free nylons.

Color harmony is important in the shoe - stocking relationship. With this in mind, the manufacturers of leading brand-name hosiery are producing a wide color range in shadow tones to blend with the browns, greens, reds, blues and blacks of the new leathers and fabrics.

These seam-free nylon stockings, which have a newly patented triple-segment heel for perfect fit, are sold in all leading department stores in your favorite brand.

DINNER SUGGESTION

A suggestion for a light dinner entree—or an all-in-one supper dish—comes from the Woman's Home Companion. Brown medium-thick slices of liver sausage very quickly in a little fat and serve on a platter ringed-round with scarlet tomato slices-either broiled or fried.

ENSEMBLE FOR FALL . . This topcoat and suit of matching soft blue tweed were designed by Hattie Carnegie and previewed in New York. Both coat and suit have narrow shawl collar. Coat is lined in red.

W. O. T. M. Officers Convene

Officers and committee chairmen of the Moose held their first meeting of the year at the home of Mrs. Harold Hill, 25 Wolfe avenue, Tuesday evening.

Mrs. Fred Lewis served as assistant hostess. Seventeen members and a guest. Mrs. Charles Sowash, were in attendance. Mrs. Cloyd Wyckoff conducted the business meeting, at which time Mrs. Richard Etzwiler was appointed treasurer and Mrs Harold Hill, recorder.

The club prize was won by Mrs. Mary Ross. Contest prizes were awarded to Mrs. Marion Gerrell and Mrs. Roy Baker.

At the close of the meeting luncheon was served at a long table appointed with garden flowers.

The next meeting will be a hobo party, August 23 at the cottage of Mrs. Ray Underwoods, Possum Run road. Miss Betty Jona will serve as associate hostess.

Petname Honey Has Meaning

The man who calls his wife "Honey" nowadays probably doesn't know how appropriate that nickname might have been some hundreds of years ago. For Honey in ancient times often meant the difference between marriage and bachelorhood.

A prospective bridegroom in Galla-Land near Abyssinia, for instance, had to offer his loved one a certain amount of Honey before the wedding. If his offer was not large enough to suit the whims of the girl's parents, the wedding was called off.

Honey was considered so valuable in Egypt that the wedding ceremony itself demanded that the young man pledge a certain amount of Honey to the bride. This token of his affections had to be paid every year.

The Hindus prized Honey because they believed that it chased away evil spirits. Consequently part of the marriage rites was an annointment of the bride with the precious sweet.

A feast on Honey — that was the treat that was in store for every bridegroom in Morocco immediately after the ceremony.

Roman couples partook of a nuptial supper that consisted only of milk, Honey, and poppy juice.

Friendship Club Has Luncheon

The Friendship club met yesterday for a one o'clock luncheon at Richland Recreation center. Mrs. James Peyton and Mrs. Howard Almy were the hostesses.

Luncheon was served at a long table centered with a bowl of garden flowers. Bridge was the diversion of the afternoon High scorers were Mrs. Ralph Hughes and Mrs. Maude Lindeman.

The next meeting will be a picnic August 24 at 12 o'clock, at the cottage of Mrs. Earl McFarland. Co-hostess will be Mrs. John Vrbanac.

Troop To Be Guests At Dinner

Fifty were in attendance when the Daughters of Isabella, Joan of Arc Circle, No. 380, met at the K. of C. home for a covered dish dinner. Summer garden flowers centered the long tables at which the dinner was served.

Mrs. J. F. Daley, chairman, Miss Grace Crotty, Mrs. Emma DeWeese, Mrs. Michael Campanelli, Mrs. Carl Beard, Mrs. Nelle Dillon, Mrs. Thomas Dillon, Mrs. Roger Bolin, Mrs. A. Curatti, Miss Mary Denig, Mrs. James Dalton and Mrs. William Clay served on the committee in charge.

Ten tables of cards were the diversion of the meeting. When scores were tallied, prizes were awarded to Miss Marie Kalbfleisch, contract; Mrs. George Stuhldreher, auction; Miss Esther Cappadonna and Mrs. Joseph Lain, pinochle. Special prizes went to Mrs. S. A. Foltz and Mrs. Beard.

Mrs. T. J. Creamer, regent, announced that at the social session to be held August 23 Girl Scout Troop, No. 45, and their leader would be guests at a covered dish dinner. The next business session will be August 9 in the K. of C. home.

HOROSCOPE

For Friday, July 29
By GENEVIEVE KEMBLE

A brilliant opportunity for growth, expansion, promotion and preferment is found among this day's planetary aspects. It is a time for forging ahead, with all resources, influences, plans and well-developed programs for attaining the goal of heart's desire, in whatever field of endeavor the trends, ambitions and aspirations may lead. It is a fertile time for gain, cherished fullfilments, with productive and increasing scope for establishing credit, position, prestige, personal popularity.

For the Birthday

Those whose birthday it is, are encouraged to reach out for the attainment of their fondest hopes, wishes and desires, in whatever realm of objectivity the desires may impell. Position, power, friends, real assets and resources are under expansive and friendly rule. Success, honors, pleasant and lively personal relations are in sight, for sound judgment, worthy principles and keen ability for campaigns of far - reaching and expanding magnitude, personal and in business affairs.

A child born on this day is excellently equipped for a successful and profitable career with increasing prestige, popularity and solid rewards for worthy aims and aspirations, happiness and honors crowning its efforts.

NOON PICNIC

Members of Class 37 of the First Christian church will hold a picnic Friday at noon at North Lake park pavilion. Each person is to bring his own table service. Coffee and dessert will be furnished.

Teen-Agers Learn About Saving Allowance Money

With a little common sense and a little planning anybody's teen-age daughter can become better friends with her pocketbook and better friends with her bank account, the Women's Division of the Institute of Life Insurance says this month in its newest booklet, "A Miss and Her Money." Written and illustrated for 'teenage girls, the booklet is one of a series the Institute published to provide information about money management and family happiness.

Stressing that 'teen - agers usually play a dual role in financial affairs, the Institute's new booklet says that the girl who is most successful at managing her own money is usually a sympathetic, active, voting member in her family's financial councils. And in reutrn for the confidence her family places in her, it suggests, the girl will owe it to her father to keep what she knows of Dad's earnings entirely within the family.

Very simply, the booklet advises, good money management for 'teen-ager or adult consists in knowing what there is to spend, planning what is to be done with the money, and then seeing that it is done. The 'teen-ager who follows these rules will be free to spend her time thinking about her homework, her next club meeting or how to snag the football captain.

"The majority of girls in their 'teens receive personal allowances from the family money," the booklet says, "and there is no doubt that having even a small regular allowance will give you a better chance to practice money management than larger but irregular gifts. A large number of youngsters also earn money on the outside by baby-sitting, running errands, doing marketing or shopping or even reading to shut-ins or setting a neighbor's hair.

"After counting up your various sources of income, you will have a good idea of Point One in money management, knowing what you have to use. Planning what you want it to do for you, which is Point Two, may be a little more complicated. You can pretty well figure out what your needs are — books, clothing, entertainment expenses or whatever they might be, but in paying for these things you will be likely to find there's never enough just to go out and buy that racquet or that new camera. You must begin saving."

The importance of regular saving, in cash and through life insurance, is stressed in the Institute's booklet. Saving will get the youngster into the habit of saving and provide resources which later on may help get her off to her own start, or buy little luxuries she could not have afforded otherwise.

RYE SANDWICHES

Rye bread or pumpernickle sandwiches are delicious with a filling that features ripe olives, ham and cottage cheese. To make it, measure about three-quarters cup of the olives, then cut the olives from the pits in rather large pieces. Mix the olives with three-quarters cup of ground cooked ham, three-quarters cup of creamed cottage cheese, and mayonnaise or creamy salad dressing to taste. These amounts will make about one and three-quarters cups of sandwich filling.

Allen Knapp Entertains In Honor of Parents

Gold streamers and mixed summer garden flowers were used for decorations at the golden wedding anniversary of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer J. Knapp of Miami, Florida. The affair was held Tuesday at Robert Hayes' Shangri-La with thirty-five in attendance.

The honored guests are the parents of Mr and Mrs. Allen Knapp, 551 West Townview circle.

Mr. and Mrs. Knapp received many lovely gifts during the day. A mock wedding ceremony was the diversion of the afternoon.

The couple are the parents of four children, Mr. and Mrs. Allen Knapp of Mansfield, Mr. and Mrs. R. F. Knapp, Miami, Florida, W. E. Knapp, Long Beach, California, and Mr and Mrs R M. Secrest of Redwood City, California

Mr and Mrs Knapp were wed July 26, 1899, in Saginaw, Michigan. Mr Knapp is retired from the heating and air conditioning industry.

Grandchildren present at the celebration were Mr and Mrs Robert Cribler, Patricia Knapp, of Mansfield, Richard, Jerry and Allen Secrest, Redwood City, California, and one great grandson, Howard Cribler.

Other guests present were Mr and Mrs Robert Hayes, Mr and Mrs. Ken Strock, Mr. and Mrs Charles Hayes, Mr. and Mrs. Sam Anderson, Mr and Mrs Clayton Nowlin and daughter, Pat of Detroit, Michigan.

Mr. and Mrs Knapp are visiting with their son, Allen, at their home on Townview circle.

A hot touch to set off an attractive platter of cold cuts s gold-specked muffins. The Woman's Home Companion suggests that you make them this way To plain muffin batter made with 2 cups flour add one cup of cooked corn cut from the cob. Bake in muffin tins as usual.

Council Gets Galion Light Plant Issue

Action Awaited At Its Next Meeting

GALION — City council is expected to take action at its next meeting on the confusing light plant ordinance which it passed July 5 and which became effective last week without Mayor H. H. Hartmann's signature

The ordinance affecting working conditions and supervision at the Municipal Light and Power Plant has been interpreted to mean it repeals a previous ordinance which governed many other city departments creating confusion in all city departments.

City Solicitor George H Davies has advised council to repeal the ordinance and pass a new one

In the meantime Walter Williams, acting chief engineer at the light plant, has resigned and a dispute between him and and light plant employes has resulted in charges of misconduct and general grievances.

A meeting of light plant employes and city officials last Tuesday evening served to clarify the situation in some respects H B Blankenship, Akron representative of the International Brotherhood of Electrical Workers was present. However, no direct action was taken by any of the factions

2 Private-Owned Pools In Auburn Township Excavated

TIRO — Two private-owned pools were excavated in Auburn township last week The first pool was made on the Walter Ervin farm the first of the week It was excavated out of a farm ditch bed with a retaining dam made out of the moved dirt

It is in the woods on the Ervin lot and is expected to serve several purposes, Ervin reports

First he plans to drain spring water into the pool from some new ground slated to be plowed for corn next spring, second it will supply water for stock and for fire protection if necessary while the pool should make a private fishing pond. It measures 60 by 80 feet and will easily hold water to a depth of seven feet.

The other pool is on the J W Hanna farm It is located north west of the Hanna home at the foot of a hill This pool is 60 by 100 feed and is fed by a large spring Hanna plans to use the pool as a source of water supply for stock and for fire protection as well as for fishing and as a bathing pool

Mrs. Hanna plans to landscrape the pool banks. The Hanna pool is on the site of a former smaller swimming hole used by the boys of the neighborhood when Norman Hanna was a boy. At one time a spring house stood on the site.

The excavating work was done by Chapin and Chapin of Norwalk The work was after the quarry pools was located Water is steadily raising in the pool.

Galion Sets New Drunk Driver Fine

Graduated Scale Adopted By Mayor

GALION — First offenders on operating a motor vehicle while under the influence of intoxicating liquors charges will be subject to fines of $100 and costs according to a new policy announced by Mayor H. H. Hartmann yesterday.

Second offenses will be subject to $200 and costs and third offenses, $500 and costs. Sentences up to six months in jail also are provided by Ohio law.

The mayor said that extenuating circumstances will be considered in passing judgment and that the police force is cooperating in getting imbibers to their homes when called upon, in an effort to prevent serious accidents caused by persons who otherwise might attempt to drive, while intoxicated.

Asks $27,848; Hurt In Crash

BUCYRUS — Damages, totaling $27,848, are asked in an action filed in Common Pleas court here by Carl Zent of R. D. 2, Galion, against Paul Downing, operator of the Service Taxi company in Galion.

Zent alleges he was injured while riding as a passenger in a Service Taxi cab when it collided with a car on U. S. Route 30-S just east of the Galion city limits June 26.

The plaintiff claims he suffered the loss of $1,920 in earnings and $1,225 in medical expenses through his injuries. He claims he suffered severe facial and chest injuries, a brain concussion and other injuries and is still under medical care.

Rain Wipes Out 2nd Game In Crucial Set

Lou Sees Hot Race In Loop

By JOE REICHLER

NEW YORK —(AP)— Lou Boudreau, manager of the Cleveland Indians, foresees another stirring three-team battle down to the wire for the American league pennant.

"I look for another terrific finish, with Cleveland, New York and Boston fighting it out just as dramatically as they did in 1948," Lou said yesterday as he watched rain drench Yankee stadium.

The shower finally forced umpires to call the second game of the important series with the Indians and Yankees tied 4-4 after four innings.

"The Red Sox have power and are finally getting good pitching," the Cleveland manager added. "Their three young lefthanders — Parnell, McDermott and Stobbs — are as good as any in the league right now.

"That McDermott should develop into one of the stars of the game."

Boudreau said he was well satisfied with the condition of his own mound staff as he faced the challenge.

"With Gene Bearden back in his 1948 pitching form and Mike Garcia helping out, we should be set for the stretch drive," he said.

"And don't forget fellows like Al Benton, Satch Paige, Sam Zoldak and Frank Papish. They've been great in relief. That Benton especially, has been a life saver. He hasn't pitched a bad game for us yet."

First baseman Mickey Vernon probably will ride the bench during the five-game series opening at Boston Friday, Boudreau disclosed yesterday.

Boudreau, who has been playing third base, will move to first base and Ken Keltner will play third.

"I'm hoping Ken will be ready to go back to third base by the time we open in Boston Friday,"

"We'll stack up our right-handed hitters in Boston, just as we did last trip, except that we'll use Allie Clark instead of Dale Mitchell only when a southpaw works for the Red Sox."

When the tribe played at Fenway park June 14, 15, and 16, Keltner was at third and Boudreau at first. The Indians swept the series 10-5, 8-5, and 6-3.

Boudreau displaced Keltner at third June 6. Since then the tribe has won 35 and lost 14 for a .714 per centage. Vernon has been a key hitter in the seven-week comeback period, driving in 31 runs and raising his battling average from .253 to .283.

Tribe Rally Knots Score In 4th Heat

NEW YORK—(AP)—After an apparently bum decision by the rain department, Cleveland's Indians went back into the ring with the New York Yankees today.

Seeking to make it two straight over the league leaders, Tribe Manager Lou Boudreau sent his pitching ace, Bob Lemon, to the mound.

Three of the righthander's 12 victories this season have been over New York. He has four losses.

The Yankees, guarding their three-game lead, called on Allie Reynolds, a former Indian who has a 10-1 record.

The world champions were on the warpath yesterday when rain forced postponement of hostilities between the two clubs in the fifth. Although the score was tied 4 to 4, the Tribe had come from behind and battered two opposition hurlers to the sidelines.

All four of the Yanks' runs came in the first inning when they sent Bob Feller to the showers. Geen Woodling singled, Phil Rizzuto beat out a bunt and then Tommy Henrich homered the club to a 3 to 0 lead.

After hitting Joe DiMaggio with a pitched ball and walking Yogi Berra, Feller went out and Sam Zoldak came in. But before the inning ended, Hank Bauer singled in DiMaggio for New York's fourth run.

TWO HOME RUNS

A homer by Joe Gordon in the second inning and another in the third by Zoldak brought the Indians halfway back. They collected the other two runs in the fourth. Mickey Vernon doubled and scored on Larry Doby's single. A stolen base and a sacrifice put Doby on third and Boudreau brought him in on a long fly.

Zoldak, in addition to his homer, limited the Yanks to only two hits in the four innings he pitched. Ed Lopat opened for New York and was followed by Clarence Marshall and Joe Page.

If Henrich performs today as he did yesterday, it would be much better for the Tribe if—as one fan put it—"he had stood in bed." He suffered a fracture of the big toe on his right foot Monday night and was expected to be out for the rest of the week.

But instead of taking it easy, he motored to Yankee stadium yesterday, tried out his toe in a baseball shoe and then asked Manager Casey Stengel to let him play.

"It was all his idea," Stengel explained. "He wanted to play so much I had to use him."

And use him, he did! In addition to his homer, Henrich got a double in his other trip to the plate.

OUT TRYING FOR TRIPLE—Chicago Cubs Pitcher Johnny Schmitz (53), who doubled in fourth inning at Wrigley Field Tuesday at Chicago, is tagged out by Brooklyn Dodger Third Baseman Billy Cox as he attempts to stretch his hit into a triple. Galion's Ray Seif Blasts Mansfield Juniors, 10-4

GALION—The pitching and batting of Galion's Ray Seif proved too much for the Mansfield's American Legion junior nine yesterday as it lost a 10-4 decision here.

Seif stopped Mansfield with only three hits, got two hits himself, scored twice and drove in two other runs. Galion scored all of its runs in the first three innings.

Skippy Burns, the 14-year-old Hot Stove league product, started on the mound for Mansfield but was relieved with one out in the third inning. He was tagged for five hits while on the mound but five bases on balls were the major part of his downfall.

Gene Yohn came on in relief and gave up two runs in the third inning but pitched shutout ball the rest of the way.

Mansfield's only lead came when it scored one run in the top of the first inning on Norm Hughes' triple and an error. In the Mansfield sixth, Ed Chelski singled, Schmitt walked, both advanced on a wild pitch and scored on Ken McCally's single. McCally took second on the throw to the plate and later scored on an error.

Final Legion Junior Entry To Be Decided

COLUMBUS — (AP) — The last of 14 teams will be picked tonight for the 1949 Ohio American Legion junior baseball title race. Play starts Monday in the double elimination state tourney at Ohio State university.

Battling tonight for the right to enter the tourney will be Cohagen Hardware and Wile Motors of Columbus in their third and deciding game.

Defending champion Cincinnati Bartley Johnson Post failed to qualify this year, assuring a new title holder.

Teams already qualified are: Budde Post, Cincinnati; Victory Post, Cleveland; Baker Post, Toledo; Gallagher Post, Lima; Urbana Post 74; Lorain Post 30; Firestone Memorial Post, Akron; Zanesville Post 29; Bird-McGinnis, Marion; Gold Camp, Marion; Fairfield Post, Lancaster; Clarence Hyde, Warren and Steubenville No. 35.

Cassel Whiffs 17 Batsmen

NEW LONDON — Thorne Cassel struck out 17 men here last night as he pitched the New London Merchants to a 6-0 shutout victory over Leesville. It was Leesville's third defeat in 17 starts.

Dutch Bader, the former Mansfield Madison high school athlete, started on the mound for the visiting Reds and was relieved by the veteran Dudley.

New London will play the Cleveland Black Sox at 8:15 p. m. here Sunday night.

Adams' Dad-Son Team In Fourth

The team of Dr. Leopold and Arnie Adams finished fourth in a field of 22 in the father - son golf tournament held at Mayfair Country club, Akron yesterday.

Dr. Adams fired an 82 and son Arnie a 75 for a 157 total in the Akron District association event. They were only three strokes off the pace of the two teams which tied for the lead.

Old Timers 9 Wins Second Softball Tilt

Fred Larue kept the Old Timers undefeated in the Recreation softball league yesterday with a seventh inning home run which beat Martin Steel, 7-5.

It was the second straight victory for the Old Timers and the second loss for Martins, the first half champions.

The Old Timers led all the way in the game until the top of the seventh when Martin Steel pushed over four runs to tie. Larue then broke up the contest with his home run with Dick Imhoff on base.

U. S. Thinlies Take 2 Firsts

OSLO, Norway — (INS) — The combined Scandinavian nations led American track and field stars by 104½ points to 78½ today as their carry-over dual meet went into its second day.

The United States Olympians could score only two individual wins and one relay triumph in the nine opening-day events.

Uncle Sam scored in the 100 meter dash with Andy Stanfield of Seton Hall, in the 400-meter hurdles with the University of Missouri's Dick Ault, and in the 400-meter relay.

Charley Peters of Indiana and Olympic champion Harrison Dillard ran right behind Stanfield in the dash.

Ex-Champion Dies At 41

GLENDALE, Calif. — (AP) — Vincent (Vince) Dundee, former middleweight boxing champion, died yesterday in a sanitarium where he had been confined since 1942. He was 41.

Sanitarium officials said death was due to multiple sclerosis.

Dundee won the middleweight title by defeating Lou Brouillard in Boston in 1933, then lost it the following year to Teddy Yarosz in Pittsburgh.

Dundee had not participated in a major ring battle since 1937 when he lost to Billy Conn in Pittsburgh.

He was the brother of Joe Dundee, former welterweight titleholder, and started his boxing career in 1927.

Cotton Is Out

RICHMOND SURREY, Eng. — (UP) — Britain's chances against the U. S. in this year's Ryder cup golf matches took another sharp decline today with the announcement that veteran Henry Cotton was passing up all future tournaments this season.

Penn Auto To Finish Ball Season On Road

Penn Auto-Sporting Goods game with T and E Tavern tomorrow at Blue Goose field will be the next-to-last home game of the season, Manager Lefty Deeds announced today.

"We are to play Lorain National Tube here Sunday and then go on the road for the rest of the season" Deeds said. "Attendance has been so low that we cannot meet the demands of bringing top-grade teams in each week."

The manager went on to say that in the event a special attraction became available the team might book a week-day game or so at home. All Sunday contests will be on the road, however, after this week.

Meanwhile Deeds was busy planning attempted revenge on T. and E. Tavern for 5:30 p. m. tomorrow. The Taverns humbled the state champs, 8-4, in a game July 1.

Shelly Swank, the converted second-baseman who has done some fine hurling the past two weeks, was named by Deeds as his pitcher for the all-important contest. T. and E. Manager Joe Siwek has not named his starter.

T. and E. has added Pete Campbell, the Gorman - Rupp third baseman and he may see service in the game as a hurler. He formerly hurled for Ohio Wesleyan.

Mulvaine Moves Into 2nd Round In Junior Meet

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Dick Mulvaine of Kenton, Ohio, teed off today in the second round of the national junior championship golf matches after a three and one victory over his fellow Ohioan, Larry Harper of Ravenna.

Mulvaine's opponent in today's match is Gene Eyler, of Olean, N. Y., who shot a two over par 74 for a two and one victory yesterday.

In his opening round against Harper, Mulvaine shot a nine over par 81 on the 6,618-yard Congressional country club course.

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Scores yesterday included:

Ronald Hughes, Lawndale, Calif., defeated Eldon Shoup, Alliance, Ohio, two up.

Jim Stewart, Hamilton, Ohio, defeated Donald McLaughlin, Oklahoma City, Okla., 2 and 1.

Kenneth Edwards, Fort Worth, Texas, defeated James Kintz, Alliance, Ohio, 3 and 1.

Hank Injured

CHICAGO — (INS) — Former army all - American Hank Foldberg arrived in Chicago today for treatment of a shoulder injury he suffered in the Chicago Hornets training camp at Ripon, Wis.

Stranahan Out Of Canadian Golf Tourney

SAINT JOHN, N. B. — (AP) — America's hopes in the Canadian amateur golf championships rested with Dick Chapman as play entered the quarter - finals today.

The Pinehurst, N. C. veteran became the only U. S. survivor after yesterday's expulsion of defending champion Frank Stranahan of Toledo, Ohio. Tommy Riddell, Quebec amateur king, ended the muscular American's two-year reign, one up in 19 holes.

Chapman, 1940 American amateur champion and 1947 runnerup for the British amateur title, had little trouble getting past the two 18-hole rounds yesterday. He first defeated Doug Bajus, Vancouver, 4 and 2, then took his afternoon match from Vern Mohs, Edmonton, Alta., 6 and 4.

Another American casualty was Denver's John Kraft, who lost a one-up morning decision to 16-year-old Laurie Roland, junior champion of British Columbia.

The Stranahan - Riddle match was a genuine hair-raiser all the way, with the lead alternating steadily and the pair finishing the first nine all square. They still were deadlocked after 16 holes.

On the extra hole, Riddell was on the green in two, with Frank just short. Pitching to the pin, Stranahan lifted his head slightly and his shot stopped nine feet short. Riddell had an easy two-putt par and the American missed his nine-foot bid to keep the match alive.

Shelby 9 Loses In State Joust

The Shelby Blues suffered their first defeat in the state National Baseball Congress tournament last night at Holgate when they lost 8-5 to Bryan. The tourney is a double elimination affair.

Somerset American Legion won the other game on last night's card, defeating Wellington, 8-7, in 14 innings. Tonight's games pair Casstown with Tiffin and Oakwood with New Lebanon.

First Drill For Rangers Set Monday

The Mansfield Rangers pro football team will open practice next Monday at Tappan Field at 6:45 p. m.

In making the announcement, Coach Jimmy Lymper said that all candidates should wear gym suits and sweat clothes. The first few practices will be devoted to conditioning exercises.

Ralph Majors, former Senior high and Indiana footballer, headed the list of 13 new candidates who attended the second organization meeting of the new team last night at the Naval Training Center. Majors starred in football, basketball and track at Senior high and was probably the greatest ground-gainer in the history of Tyger football.

He starred on the Indiana freshman team in 1947, but dropped out of school. Majors had been counted on as a Hoosier regular.

One-armed George Doyle is another backfield hopeful as the squad soared to 30 tryouts last night. Other candidates may report to practice Monday.

Asking for tryouts last night were: Ends—Jack Fletcher, 170, Madison; Bill Yosick, 170, Shelby; Jack Miles, 210, Senior high; Walter Lumpkins, 180, Senior high. Guards — Seamon Larson, 180, Indiana; Mathew Burrage, 185, Senior high. Center — M. Stevens, 205, Madison. Backs — Doyle, 165, Senior high; Majors, 162, Senior high; Cleve Lewis, 185, Portsmouth; Les Rapp, 170, Barberton; Jack Burton, 160, Lucas; Mark Ryuse, 162, Mansfield.

Gospel Squad In Tough Spot

Four Square Gospel will play the role of giant killer in the Church softball league tonight when it concludes first half play against First Congregational at Prospect park.

First Congregational has won five out of six starts and can tie Park Avenue Baptist for the league lead with a victory. Park Avenue, idle today, has won six out of seven. First Methodist has completed its season with 6-2.

Ohr Church games today pair United Brethren and St. Mattew's at Johns park, and First Presbyterian and First Christian at North Lake.

A National league contest will be played at Liberty between Lumbermens and Ideal Electric. The game was postponed from the first round.

Philadelphia A's Get Back Into Pennant Act

By JACK HAND
(AP Sports Writer)

Maybe Connie Mack was right when he said his Philadelphia A's still had a chance in the American league race.

They laughed at the kindly old gent when he spoke with optimism in St. Louis as his A's floundered close to the second division. They had lost 12 of their last 14 on a sorry road trip.

When he let Carl Scheib pitch the entire nine innings at Chicago last week, absorbing an 18-hit, 12-0 drubbing, many figured Mr. Mack was conceding.

Then the A's turned. A doubleheader sweep over the White Sox Sunday and now three straight over the wobbly St. Louis Browns and they have a shiny new five-game, winning streak. Furthermore, they are only 7½ back of the leading New York Yankees and only a half game behind the sizzling Boston Red Sox.

To cap this turn - about - face, Scheib went the route again last night, despite a five-run first inning assault by the Brownies.

Scheib survived and settled down. Roy Sievers and Dick Kokos hit homers in that first inning and Bob Dillinger smashed a triple. After that frame, Schieb allowed only two more hits.

Philadelphia won the opener of the twilight - night doubleheader for Lou Brissie, 7-3 with a four-run spurt in the fourth when Eddie Joost cleared the bases with a double.

Mel Parnell, the solid man of Boston's suddenly potent pitching staff, held the Chicago White Sox to three hits in a 6-0 victory. It was his 14th win and his 17th complete game in 21 starts.

The Sox, turning up for their important five - game weekend series with Cleveland, rapped Randy Gumpert and Matt Surkont for 11 hits including Bobby Doerr's 12th homer. Dom DiMaggio boosted his consecutive game hitting streak to 22 with a double and single.

Washington finally broke its 11-game losing string by edging Detroit, 7-6, in the first of a twi-night doubleheader. But the Tigers smothered the Senators, 11-0, on Freddie Hutchinson's four-hit pitching to break even.

Rain postponed the second game of the New York-Cleveland series with the score tied 4-4 at the end of four innings.

The St. Louis Cards continued to run wild in the National league, preserving their 1½ game margin over Brooklyn by smashing the Phillies, 7-3. It was their seventh straight win in a string interrupted by Monday's tie at Brooklyn.

Hank Borowy's wildness was his downfall. He walked five men in the first two innings and all scored.

Brooklyn ended its longest losing streak at four games by routing the Chicago Cubs, 7-3. Starting pitcher Don Newcombe failed to last the route. Manager Burt Shotton brought in Erv Palica to retire the side in the ninth.

The New York Giants saved fifth place by trimming Pittsburg, 8-3, on the flasky relief pitching of Kirby Highe, the ex-Pirate. Wes Westrum's three-run homer in the seventh was the big blow of the game.

Marv Rickert bashed a homer with a man on in the 13th inning for Boston's 9-7 win over Cincinnati. Bob Elliott accounted for four earlier runs with two homers before he was banished by umpire Frank Dascoli.

Jewelers Tie for American Softball Lead

Hermans Slip Past Liederkranz, 7 To 6

Todd's Jewelry tied Farm Tools for the American Softball league lead last night by blasting Isaly Dairy, 5-1, at Prospect park. Both Todd's and the Toolmen now have two second-half victories without a defeat. DAV has won its only start.

The veteran Dale McKinley held Isaly's to four hits in the contest while his mates were collecting eight. Isaly errors played a major part in Todd's scoring of two runs in the second inning and the other three in the third.

The other American league contest went to Sons of Herman, 7-6, over Liederkranz at North Lake park. Rob Kanz broke up the game in the last of the seventh inning with a long home over the street-block barrier in deep center field.

Sons of Herman trailed by one run and had two men out when Twardzik singled and Kanz unloaded his long one, his only hit of the night.

Liederkranz, with seven Gorman-Rupp players in the lineup, led all the way until Sons of Herman tied the score with four runs in the bottom half of the sixth. Two bases on balls and three hits helped tie the count, but Liederkranz regained the lead in the top of the seventh when two errors put Dale Uhlich on third base and Bob Regula singled him home.

Dancer Rips 607 In Bowling Loop

Don Dancer rolled the first 600 series of the summer Mixed Doubles league bowling season last night when he tossed a 188-200-219—607 at Richland Recreation.

Dancer and Sally Foster won three games to tighten their grip on first place in the loop. They have won 22 games and lost five.

Mary McMullen and Ernie Faught were close behind the leaders with a 1035 mark last night. Dancer and Foster had 1043.

Reds Sell Harry Gumbert To Pirates

CINCINNATI — (AP) — Harry Gumbert, veteran relief pitcher for the Cincinnati Reds, was sent to Pittsburgh today via the waiver route.

For several years, Gumbert was the game-saver of the Reds, but this year he seemed to have completely lost his stuff.

Sport Center Wins 6th In Girls' League

The Ohio Sport Center girls took over undisputed possession of second place in the Girls' Softball league last night with a 31-3 victory over North Lake park.

The victory gave Sport Center a record of six victories and one defeat against a 5-1 mark by Lumbermens. Westinghouse leads the loop with 6-0.

Betty Novacic led Sport Center with three singles and two home runs while Mildred Haffa had five singles in six trips.

Printzess beat Prospect, 7-6, in another league game.

Mat Fans Put On Top Fight

COLUMBUS — (INS) — Wrestling fans agreed today that the customers put on a better fight than the wrestlers at an exhibition at Haft's Acre in Columbus.

Box score on the brawl last night read something like this:

Lancaster police officer Lloyd Crider, a spectator — severe bites on third finger, left hand. Columbus Patrolman George Kegg, helping Crider — possible fracture of left hand and wrist. William B. Gwinn, 27, Columbus, spectator — lacerations of the head. Gwinn and his father, Nathan, 52, both under arrest for inciting a riot.

Oh, yes — handsome Frank Sexton came from behind as usual in the last minutes of an hour-long bout to win a decision over the giant Frederich Von Schacht of Milwaukee.

25 Teams Battle In KC Tourney

SANDUSKY — (AP) — Twenty-five teams will compete here this week end in state Knights of Columbus softball tournament. Norwood, defending champs, will play Cleveland West Park Saturday. Other teams entered include:

Sandusky, Fremont, Ashtabula Marion, Carey, Akron, Cleveland Edgewater, Springfield, Cleveland Gilmour, Warren, Youngstown No. 274, Fostoria, Upper Sandusky, Cleveland No. 733, West Toledo, Parma, Youngstown No. 3144, Swanton, Elyria, Cleveland Fairview, Columbus Santa Maria, Lorain and Newark.

Quarter-Finals Set In Tourney

First round play in the Westbrook caddy tournament was completed yesterday when Jim Hager won a forfeit decision over Sherban, who failed to appear for the match.

Quarter-final play is scheduled next Monday with defending champion Larry Inscore meeting "Beebee" Vrabel, Bud Baith playing Johnny McIntire, Hager opposing Charles Vandlick, and Dean Hahn tangling with Gerald Jones.

Delphos Softballer In Bucyrus Hospital

BUCYRUS — Donald Thitoff, 27, Delphos, is recovering in City hospital here from injuries suffered over the week end in the state Veterans of Foreign Wars softball tournament.

Thitoff suffered a brain concussion when he collided with another player during the Delphos-Cuyahoga Falls game.

Ontario Rips Shelby, 12-6

ONTARIO — The Ontario Merchants scored seven runs in the last two innings here yesterday to defeat Shelby Settlement, 12-6.

Ontario paraded three pitchers to the mound before finally coming up with the victory; Sandel started, was relieved by Lefty Dave Marks and Hall came on to hurl the last two innings and get credit for the victory.

Sammy Snead Top Man In Western Open Golf Field

ST. PAUL, Minn. — (AP) — The western golf association's 47th open tournament moves onto a public course for the first time in its history today, with Sam Snead warning the field he'll be tough to beat.

Snead conveyed his warning in double-barrelled fashion yesterday. First, in a practice round he put together a six-under-par 66. Then, just to show he meant business, he won a driving contest with a 300-yard effort, 12 yards better than the 288-yards by Cary Middlecoff. Snead drove another ball 296 yards just to prove it was no mistake.

ALL IN TOURNEY

All Ryder cup pros, with the exception of Ben Hogan, are entered, along with the other men that make up the top 14 money winners thus far this year.

First place will add $2,600 to the winner's earnings. The rest of the $15,000 prize money will be spread through the field, down to 25th place, which gets $100.

Eighteen holes will be played each of the four days of the meet, with the field to be cut to the low 60 and ties after Friday's round.

Sad Sam Zoldak Really Sad Now

NEW YORK — (UP) — Pity the plight of Sad Sam Zoldak.

The Cleveland pitcher had never hit a home run in the major leagues. Yesterday he took just an average cut in the third inning of the Yankee game, and, lo and behold, the ball soared out of the park.

So what happens? A cloudburst cancelled out the game after the fourth inning, washing the homer out of the record books.

YESTERDAY'S STARS

BATTING—Mary Pickett, Braves, hit two-run homer in 13th inning for Boston's 99-7 edge over Cincinnati.
PITCHING—Mel Parnell, Red Sox, shut out White Sox with three hits, 6-0, for 14th win and 17th complete game in 21 starts.

Jim Regula's One-Hitter Gives Gorman-Rupp Win

Stretch Regula held the vaunted Ashland Indians to one long single last night as he pitched Gorman-Rupp to a 4-0 victory over their arch-rivals at Ashland.

Stretch walked but one man and struck out eleven as he was never in trouble at any time. It was Gorman-Rupp's 15th victory against eight defeats, and the most important victory so far this season.

Bill McCarrick was the batting hero as he poled a home run with a mate aboard in the fifth inning for the Pumpers' first two runs. Shortstop Al Baki had three singles in four times at bat.

Ted Bush played first base for Gorman-Rupp in the absence of Manager Nick Weber, who is out with a torn cartilage in his chest. Weber was injured on a slide into second base in a game last week.

Paul Michaels, who did the mound duty for the Indians, had beaten Gorman-Rupp 8-0 earlier in the season.

Police Hold 2 In Theft of Narcotics

COLUMBUS — (AP) — Police are holding two Columbus residents in the theft of narcotics from University hospital.

The two were identified as Albert A. Howard, 26, a hospital messenger, and Haydn L. Howard, 33, a former hospital employe. Both are being held for investigation of burglary and grand larceny.

The arrests were made a day after Miss Faye Marcella Candy Arlington, 29, a Columbus waitress was arrested in Cincinnati.

Border Patrol Seizes Liquor

HARRISBURG, Pa. — (AP) — Special border patrols were set up today by the state liquor control board to shut off the illegal entry of liquor into Pennsylvania.

The board said it is establishing details at roads and bridges leading into the state to seize unauthorized cargoes of liquor entering the state.

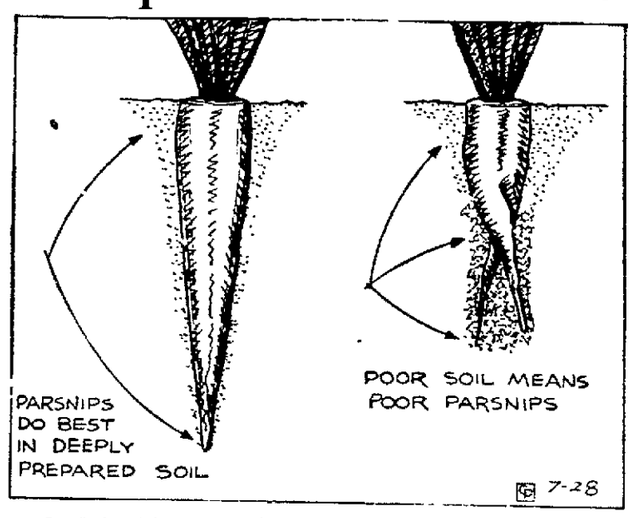
"It is hard to determine how much is being brought in but it must be a considerable amount and the board doesn't propose to close its eyes to it," asserted chairman Frederick T. Gelder.

Fees Refunded

PORTSMOUTH — (AP) — Common Pleas Judge Fred Everett yesterday ordered the city to refund $3,552 in license fees to restaurant owners.

Today's Garden Graph

Parsnips Are Worth Trouble



By DEAN HALLIDAY
(By Central Press)

Parsnips take their own sweet time to mature—about 130 days—but once you have acquired a taste for them they are well worth waiting for.

Other vegetables give quicker results, but it must be remembered that parsnips will be available from the garden at a time when there is little else that can be considered a fresh vegetable.

Although some parsnips can be dug in the fall, the bigger part of the crop is best left in the ground for use during the winter and in the early spring. They actually improve in flavor if left in the ground over winter.

If you want long, smooth well-shaped roots see that the soil is deeply prepared before planting. The accompanying Garden-Graph shows the difference in parsnips grown in well prepared soil as compared to soil left hard and lumpy. Frequent and deep cultivation also is essential to satisfactory development of parsnips. Throughout their growing season and especially now parsnips require a constant supply of moisture.

Dig, don't pull parsnip roots from the ground. Roots can be stored in a cellar in moist sand for winter use. If left in the ground over winter, the roots are best protected with a straw mulch.

If you plan to plant parsnips next season, remember that the seeds should not be sown until the ground is warm, generally about the middle of May. Cover about half an inch deep and allow 18 inches to two feet between the rows. The average packet contains sufficient seeds to sow 50 feet of row.

100 Expected To Enter Model Plane Contest

Mansfield's second annual model airplane meet will be held Aug. 21 at municipal airport under auspices of the Exchange club, William H. Kerruish, chairman of the committee in charge, announced today.

More than 1,000 invitations have been mailed to model airplane builders and clubs throughout Ohio and surrounding states. The sponsors anticipate in excess of 100 participants in the meet, Kerruish stated.

Spectators will be admitted without charge to the meet. Special provision will be made for parking to avoid traffic congestion which developed at last year's meet. Kerruish said a crowd of several thousands is expected if weather conditions are favorable.

The meet will consist of 10 speed events, two stunt events and one jet plane contest. There will be 34 trophies plus 34 merchandise prizes. The various races will be sponsored by Mansfield business places. All first place prizes will be trophies.

Participants will be divided into three age groups, the junior group for those under 16 years of age, senior group from 16 to 21, and the open group for all over 21.

Last year's meet drew participants from as far away as New York state.

The international model airplane meet will be held in Detroit the week following the Mansfield event. It is expected that several of the Mansfield winners will participate in the Detroit meet.

Fireman's Willing But He's Stranded

BRIDGEWATER, Va. — (UP) — When floodwaters stuck this northwestern Virginia town, the local fire department swung into action.

Volunteer members were asked to assemble to help rescue stranded familes from their rooftops. All but one fireman showed up.

He was found shortly afterwards, stranded on his rooftop.

Will Re-enact Indian Attack

NEW YORK — (UP) — During the last week of July, Iroquois Indians will "attack" the village of Midland, Ont., and "massacre" the occupants thereof. They will also attack and rout Huron Indians there.

It will be a re-enactment of the massacre which took place there three centuries ago. At that time, the Iroquois attacked in deadly seriousness and killed all the settlers there, destroying the Fort Ste. Marie at the same time.

At this re-enactment, almost everyone in the community, in the heart of Canada's vacation land, will take part. The Indians are making a special pilgrimage to the village.

About 100,000 visitors are expected during the event.

County Sets Pay Rate For Road Workers

Relief Food Orders Equal $6.25 a Day

Able-bodied relief clients employed on county road projects will be paid at the rate of $6.25 in food orders for a seven-hour day.

That rate was authorized by the county commissioners on recommendation of County Engineer Walter E Rusk and Relief Director Harvey W. Burghard

Other costs of the program call for paying Mansfield Rapid Transit, Inc, $9 per day for transporting as many as 40 men to the work projects.

A supplemental noonday ration for 40 men will cost $8 per day. First aid supplies, poison ivy "shots" and medical attention will cost approximately $5 per day. Gloves and miscellaneous personal service are to cost about $2 a day

All those payments are chargeable to the county relief department

Other costs, chargeable to the county engineering department, include $20 for transportation of supervisory personnel and supplies replacement of tools, $2 per day, an dother miscellaneous supplies, including fuel oil for brush burning, at a cost o f$3 a day

Commissioners yesterday authorized a transfer of $500 from the fuel and light fund to the physician and county home fund

'Wholesale' Clubs Bared

SPOKANE, Wash —(UP) — The old promise that "I can get it for you wholesale" is plaguing Spokane merchants

Discount clubs have been springing up, not all of which are honest. They work like this: a person gets a card in the mail that offers him as much as 40 per cent discount in Spokane stores if he joins the club. Membership fees are from $3 to $5.

The Better Business Bureau reported that the discount clubs have persuaded about 50 Spokane merchants to give discounts on merchandise bought by club members

But many of the clubs are crooked The bureau said some solicit members and when they get the fees, they disappear without giving any service

Jewels Pave Way For Climbers To Crash Way Into High Society

NEW YORK—Want to crash high society? One of the quickest ways today is to buy a famous gem or collection of jewels.

Society then will let down its barriers and invite you in just to look at your pretty baubles through lifted lorgnettes.

As proof of this truism in their trade jewelers cite the late Mrs. Evalyn Walsh McLean, famous Washington hostess and owner of the Hope diamond.

"There is no doubt that any woman who owned that stone would be made socially in Washington," said Daniel F. Frey, executive director of the Harry Winston jewelry firm which purchased the fabulous gem from the McLean estate.

"When she gave parties, it was her entrance that created more attention than the arrival of noted diplomats, generals, or supreme court justices. In fact, many came to her parties only to see the diamond. She realized this, and loved to show it."

Frey said several wealthy persons had commissioned his firm to offer Mrs. McLean up to $1,000,000 for her gem, hoping they could thus duplicate her social success. But in her lifetime she wouldn't sell it.

Among the financial titans of the past who used jewelry to widen their fame or notoriety were "Diamond Jim" Brady and J. J. Hill, the "empire builder."

"Hill carried a heart-shaped emerald in his pocket as a good-luck token," said Frey. "It was quite a token—worth $250,000. And his estate sold it at a profit after his death."

Some jewelers think that for good taste and quality the greatest American collector was Mrs. Elbert T. Gary, wife of the steel magnate.

"One of her finest pieces was a rope of 166 perfectly matched single carat gems," recalled Frey. It was a chastely simple string of glitter—only six feet long.

The Winston firm has fashioned 21 other diamonds from her collection into a sternly elegant bracelet. It's available for $165,000.

The Hope diamond, valued variously from $250,000 to $2,000,000 in its ill-starred history, is currently off the market.

"We are sending it on a nation-wide tour to raise funds for local charities," explained Frey. "It has such a reputation for bringing bad-luck—perhaps now it will bring some good luck."

Some 500 jewelers have requested permission to display it. The Hope diamond's value comes not so much from its size—there are perhaps 20 other top quality stones that equal its 44 ½-carat weight—as from its unique blue color.

The base of the diamond market is still the man of middle income who will pay up to $400 for a half-carat engagement ring. Recently there has been an influx of foreign buyers seeking the larger stones for investment purposes. They feel jewels will depreciate less than the uneasy currencies of their uneasy countries.

Jewelers also are excited over the prospect of reviving gem-wearing among men.

"We rather let that market slip away from us," sighed Frey. "But it is coming back slowly."

Jeweled rings are particularly popular at present with Texas oil millionaires. And they're competitive about them. They compare the sizes of their diamond rings.

The loser flies here and tells his jeweler:

"Make me a bigger one. I'll show 'em I'm as good a money-maker as any of 'em."

And with a ten-carat top quality stone he can prove his point. It only takes about $25,000—more or less.

Declares New York Has Sanest Liquor Laws of Entire Nation

My observations in many cities, dry, wet, moist and saturated, convince me that New York has the sanest liquor laws and the strictest, straightest enforcement of regulations in the nation. The masterpiece is the 4 a. m. closing rule. Because you can't enjoy outsmarting the authorities until that late hour, few even stay up to meet it.

So most distributories call it a night considerably before the deadline. And I haven't found one place crossing it, though a dozen years ago there were 1,000. The new generation seems to have lost its zest for seeing the rising sun try to peep through blacked-out windows.

In every other town, big and small, there are after-hour cheateries.

And if there were smarties here who tried to beat the liquor statutes and prescribed Alcohol Board of Control rules they wouldn't get away with it. Enforcement is airtight.

Licenses are valuable, vested property. And they are lifted for deliberate infractions, which embrace also unsavory character of patrons, loose accounting, credit or drinks on the house, raw flirting, bottle-switching. B-girls, unlicensed "entertainment," gyp and clip stuff or underage selling.

Much of the late patronage in other cities comes from traveling actors and transient cabaret performers after they've finished their shows. They work late, they don't have to get up early, they're stranded for congenial company. Here, the troupers are at home. They have apartments or suburban cottages; many have kids, the majority have wives or husbands; most of them scurry right home; but if they want a late romp, they have friends whom they join where they live.

Only Club Carr, now moving to an East Side ex-mansion, can deal all night. Only members and their guests can get in. Booze is served from their lockers only.

Carr has established his legality in court. A number of judges carry cards, which may have done him no harm. No shows allowed, though, must be quiet.

So you have a community of 10,000,000 residents and maybe 2,000,000 visitors, where virtually no one can buy a drink with a violation for a chaser, and only a handful want to.

Charlie Washburn, who worked with me on Chicago newspapers, is one of the few old-line press agents who can still pull miracles. For and abour Billy Rose, Wash gets newsbreaks cabled from strange places and otherwise fascinates me, though I am no fanatical devotee of his choice of livelihood.

Now he has manipulated a flash from Monte Carlo, to the effect the Ruth Thomas, one of the Diamond Horseshoe long-stemmed roses, chucked the first natural when that aristocratic Mediterranean casino introduced crap-shooting, after study and research in the U. S. There is an American chorus hoofing there and Ruth is one of the pips. The rest sounds to me like goulash, cooked up with Charlie as the chef.

Sees New Outbreak Possible

Dr. Wain Warns Of Disease Threat

"Although the recent gatro - intestinal epidemic here rapidly was brought under control, we can expect a recurrence at any time," Dr. Harry Wain, city-county health commissioner, told members of the Optimist club yesterday at the Mansfield - Leland hotel.

"There are 10,000 persons living in fringe areas of Mansfield who have neither proper water supplies nor satisfactory sewage disposals," Dr. Wain, said.

"There also are some sub - standard areas in the city proper, but conditions there are not as bad as in the suburban areas," Dr. Wain added.

"The chance of an epidemic, such as the recent outbreak of gastro-intestinal diseases in Country Club Allotment No. 3 spreading throughout the entire city is not great, but there are sure to be sporadic cases in the city," Dr. Wain said in answer to a question.

Any person living in the fringe area is a potential carrier. He can spread germs to everyone he comes in contact with," Dr. Wain said.

Montie Jay Brown, 11 - month old son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles R. Brown was the third child to die due to the gastro - intestinal epidemic in the Country Club allotment. The Brown child died Friday after an illness of four days.

Dr. Wain estimated that at least 50 per cent of the Allotment's 468 residents were taken ill with some kind of gastro - intestinal disorder during the epidemic.

RAPS NEGLIGENCE

"We have been very negligent of health problems in Mansfield in the past. There have been too frequent changes in the health department personnel and there never has been ample funds for the department," Dr. Wain said.

"Health experts estimate there should be one sanitation officer for every 15,000 population. We added a sanitary worker the first of January to bring us closer to that requirement. We now have three sanitary officials in Richland county and Mansfield to take care of the 47,000 persons in Mansfield and 32,000 elsewhere in Richland county."

"The mushrooming growth of sub-standard housing, unfortunately, could not be prevented since Richland county does not have a zoning ordinance to prevent the springing up of the shack cities," Dr. Wain said

"The most feasible plan to improve the water supply and sewage in the fringe areas would be to extend city facilities to the new "suburbs", and to charge them for use of the facilities," explained Dr. Wain.

As an alternate plan the residents of the fringe areas could band together in an association to share the cost of drilling for water and installing a satisfactory sewer system. The health department has been trying to create interest in the various fringe areas to do this but with little success.

DRILL OWN WELLS

Dr. Wain said individuals in the fringe areas are drilling their own wells — at costs as high as $300. Neighbors then pay a dollar a day to take water from the well. If these persons formed an association they could provide themselves with safe water and adequate sewage disposal at a much lower cost, he added.

Gets Pants, $40 In Cash

Burglar Enters Sixth Street Home

An occupied house on West Sixth street was burglarized early today while the owner slept, and a Fairlawn avenue resident was alarmed by a prowler who hid in the evergreens outside her home.

Paul E. Davis, 408 West Sixth street, reported to police that a pair of trousers containing a billfold with more than $40 in cash was taken from a chair in the dining room.

Davis said his dog wakened him about 1 a. m. and that he arose to quiet the dog when he noticed the back door was open and that two small holes had been punched in the screen door.

A woman's purse, also in the dining room, had been ransacked but nothing was reported missing from it. Davis said he had gone to bed at 10:30 p. m.

At 1 a. m. police had a call from Mrs. Earl K. Rickner, 247 Fairlawn avenue, who reported she saw a man standing among the evergreen trees in her yard Police searched the vicinity but were unable to find the prowler.

Rites Friday For Mrs. R. O. Richards

Funeral services for Mrs. Mary Margaret Richards, 41, wife of Robert O. Richards, 246 Vernum avenue, will be held at the First Methodist church at 1:30 p. m. Friday in charge of Rev. C. W. Stoneburner, pastor of the church. Burial will be at Nova. Friends may call at the Wappner funeral home until 10 a. m. Friday.

Mrs. Richards died at home yesterday, following a long illness.

Catholics Schedule Open-Air Mass

Mansfield Catholics and their friends will join other area Catholics in the celebration of an outdoor Field Mass, a solemn Mass of reparation and atonement, at Heise park, Galion, Sunday morning, Sept. 11.

The Mass, which will begin a 11:30 a. m. so Catholics may first attend mass in their own churches, will be the first outdoor Field Mass ever held in the vicinity of Galion.

Msgr. R. C. Goebel, pastor of St. Peter's Catholic church and a dean of the Toledo diocese in that district, will be the celebrant of the Sunday Mass.

He will be assisted by Rev. F. X. Hermiller of St. Joseph's church, Crestline, and Rev. J. P. Bruin, of St. Patrick's church, Galion, as deacon and sub-deacon. A number of other priests and nuns of the deanery are expected to attend.

Msgr. Goebel will deliver the Mass sermon over a loud speaker system.

Alcolites in their vestments, children dressed in white, and members of the Fourth degree Knights of Columbus in full regalia, will act as guards of honor and participate in the professional and recessional. A seminary choir will sing the Mass.

Those attending the Mass are invited to bring picnic lunches and join in the games and contests which will follow the Mass. The civilian part of the day's program has been planned by special committees.

The Knights of Columbus of Crawford county, Galion, Bucyrus, Crestline, and New Washington councils are in charge of arrangements for the Field Mass and other events of the day. Robert E. Quinn of Galion, district deputy of Crawford county councils, is chairman-in-chief.

Men Urged To Sign Up

Appointments are open for a number of men at the Mansfield Cancer Detection clinic next Tuesday. Dr. W. E. Wygant, clinic director, said yesterday. The clinic is held at 7:30 p. m. at General hospital.

Only seven men are signed up for Tuesday night, Dr. Wygant said, and the clinic can easily handle 20 men.

The schedule for women is filled for about two weeks in advance, but men can have an immediate appointment, he said.

An appointment can be made by phoning the cancer clinic at 2291-6.

"A medical representative from the Sloan-Kettering Cancer Research department of Memorial hospital, New York city, recently visited the Mansfield clinic and said it was one of the most efficient he has inspected, clinic officials said.

FROST FORECASTERS—

Farmers and gardeners are hoping the katydids don't know anything about frost dates. The big green insects are tuning up for their late summer concerts in woodlots around Mansfield. Believers in signs have long contended that the first frost occurs six weeks after the katydids begin to chirp. That would bring frost as early as the first or second week in September, before many crops have matured. Bug experts, however, scoff at the idea. They point to the specific number of weeks inquired for katydids to reach maturity and start singing. The insects reach adulthood in late July or early August.

HEADED FOR HOME—

Dr. George Searle, 89-year-old former Plymouth mayor, was headed for home today by plane after a visit to his native England. He and Mrs. Searle received a scroll signed by the mayor and aldermen of the British namesake for the northern Richland county village. Dr. Searle, father of Dr. G. J. Searle of Mansfield, received wide publicity when he refused to pose with an airline hostess when he and Mrs. Searle arrived in England. He said he preferred to be photographed with his wife. The elder Searles have been making their home in Bradenton, Fla.

Reports On Net Income

NEW YORK — (AP) — Westinghouse Electric croporation reported net income of $28,409,961, equal to $2.10 a share, for the six months ended June 30.

This compared with $27,441,100, or $2.02 a share, for the first half last year.

New orders received by the company during the first six months this year totaled $467,122,984, a drop of 12 per cent from $523,706,798 in the same 1948 period.

Net sales billed for the first half this year came to $468,073,982, a decline of 3 per cent from $482,882,779 from the like period last year.

At the end of June, the company's backlog of unfiled orders totaled $602,820,861, compared with $678,925,183 the year previous.

Warns He'll Seize Rifles

Increased rifle shooting near Mansfield brought a warning from Sheriff E. P. Long today that all guns, being shot near residences, would be confiscated by his department.

Long said a Springmill road resident reported last night that boys were shooting a rifle in the vicinity of his home. Deputies said they located the spot of the shooting on Poth road but that the boys had left the scene. The youths were reported to be driving a 1946 light tan coupe.

Bicycle Stolen

Daniel Schneider, 662 Sloane avenue, reported to police yesterday that his bicycle was stolen from the YMCA between 1 and 3:45 p. m. yesterday. The bike is valued at $40.

Pulling In Of Belts Forecast

Transfers Will Be Sought

Some of Mansfield's city departments are going to have to tighten their belts to finish the year without deficits, a financial report prepared by Auditor Paul L. Kelley indicated today.

Probably the hardest hit will be the city water department, which has only $128 left in its fund above the minimum amount required to meet operating expenses for the rest of the year.

Kelley said the department probably would have to be subsidized by the general fund to get it through the year, especially if an emergency arises.

The street department is running in the red and city council will be asked next Wednesday to authorize the transfer of $21,800 to that department to meet rising expenses.

The general fund still has $129,721 for use this year and the sanitary sewer fund has $14,940. City council will be asked at its next meeting to transfer $10,000 from the general fund to the street department. Transfers from other funds will make up the balance of the necessary $21,800.

The three gasoline tax funds total $17,303. This money is earmarked for specific street department uses.

Other money that is available includes: parking meter fund, $4,284; registration fee fund, $2,908; airport fund, $13,438, and public recreation fund, $3,877.

H. N. Shriner Dies In Home

Harvey N. Shriner, 63, of 66 Bentley street, died at his home this morning after an illness of six months.

He was born in Ashland county, Nov. 14, 1885, and had lived in this vicinity all his life. He was an employe of the Ideal Electric Manufacturing company for 13 years and a member of the First Christian church.

Surviving are a sister, Mrs. Abbie Codger, of Cleveland; a cousin, Mrs. Russell Whitcomb, of Mansfield; three nieces, Mrs. Otto Abbott, of Mansfield, Mrs. Mary Pennypacker, of Cleveland and Mrs. Ruth Reger, of Adario; and a nephew, Ray Abbott, of Mansfield. His mother died three years ago.

Rev. Ben F. Hagelbarger, pastor of the First Christian church, will conduct services at the Geiger funeral home at 2 p. m. Saturday. Burial will be in Mansfield cemetery. Friends may call at the funeral home after 7 p. m. today.

Methodists Elect Three

Three new district superintendents were elected yesterday at the Ohio Conference of Free Methodist churches being held this week at Camp Brown, East Mansfield.

The new superintendents are Rev. R. A. Maxwell, Zanesville; Rev. L. E. Guffey, Galion; and Rev. Glenn A. Hall, Akron.

Afternoon services will continue Saturday and appointments for new churches will be made at that time. The conference will close Sunday.

Bishop Charles V. Fairbairne, McPherson, Kan., is presiding at the conference. Rev. Forman Lincicome, Gary, Ind., is evangelist for the camp and Rev. Lloyd Knox, Rochester, N. Y., is youth worker.

Mallett Infant Stricken In Home

Donna Jean Mallett, eight-week-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Raymond Mallett, died suddenly this morning at the family home, 627 Johns avenue. She was born June 3 in Mansfield.

Coroner D. C. Lavender said the baby died of a heart condition.

Surviving, in addition to her parents, are a brother, John R., at home; and her two grandfathers, Forrest Mallett, of Lore City, and Clayton Perman, of Mansfield.

Funeral arrangements, in charge of the Wappner funeral home, are incomplete.

Play By Children's Theater Attracts Capacity Audience

There was standing room only at the opening performance of "The Pied Piper of Hamlin" last night at South park pavilion as more than 300 persons crowded into the shelter to attend the Children's Theatre production.

Script for the show was written and directed by Miss Barbara Shively, assistant to the the theater director, Harold McCuen. It was the first time that an original adaptation of a story book tale, written by a member of the staff, has been presented.

The play will be repeated at 8 p. m. today at the pavilion.

Best performances of the evening were given by Roger Thaler as the Pied Piper and Lee Cramer as the mayor of Hamlin. The mice ballet, which opened the play, received a round of applause.

Curtain raisers, "sleeping Beauty" and "Rumple Stiltskin", given as chorus readings, were directed by McCuen.

Lonely Hearts Suspect Testifies

Claims She 'Forgot' Details of Slaying

NEW YORK — (UP) — Fat Martha Beck testified yesterday that she blacked out from a slap in the face and did not remember anything about the hammer-and-scarf slaying of Mrs. Janet Fay, 66-year-old victim of a kiss-and-kill lonely hearts racket.

Mrs. Beck's good humor, frequent laughter and spirited antics were gone as she testified earnestly in an effort to save herself from the electric chair.

When her attorney, Herbert E Rosenberg, reached the high points of his questioning and asked for her recitation of how Mrs. Fay was killed in an apartment shared by Mrs. Beck and her balding lover, Raymond Fernandez, Mrs. Beck said:

"I don't remember."

Her memory of the night of January 4 when Mrs Fay was beaten with a ball-peen hammer and strangled with a scarf blacked out after Mrs Fay slapped her because of a crude remark accusing the Albany widow of wanting sexual relations with Fernandez, Mrs Beck said.

The 200-pound, simpering defendant, who came to court in a conservative navy blue dress with her hair freshly curled, said she found Mrs Fay nude in bed.

She said Mrs Fay said she and Fernandez intended to marry and when Mrs Beck made her next remark, the widow slapped her.

"I don't know what happened after she slapped me," Mrs. Beck testified

"The next thing I knew, the defendant, Fernandez, had me by the shoulders shaking me."

She said she snapped into consciousness and found Mrs. Fay slumped over a suitcase at her feet. It was only a few minutes after she had been slapped, she said.

Mrs Beck testified that she was "fuzzy" about the remainder of the night and the following day. She said she did not remember what happened to Mrs. Fay's body.

Mrs. Beck repudiated all confessions and statements made to authorities after her arrest in Grand Rapids, Mich., last February.

She said she lied in many respects because she was bewildered, didn't know what she was saying and at that time had no regard for the truth.

"I am now telling the truth because my life is at stake," she said.

The word "barbarian" was first used by the Greeks to mean "foreigners" but it later came to mean a bad or savage person.

Evangelist Will Speak

DEL GRANT

Del Grant, nationally, known evangelist, will be in Mansfield Friday night to preach at the Assembly of God Tent meeting at 7:30 p. m.

Grant has traveled 500,000 miles in the past 10 years most of the time spent in presenting morale - building shows to service men and veterans His itinerary has taken him over most of the North American continent to US army posts

Recently, he completed a 7,000 mile trek in Alaska where he talked to thousands of service men. His experiences there have been incorporated in a book, which has been recently reprinted

In addition to his army post evangelism, Grant has ministered in veteran and military hospitals. His immediate plans call for a trip to India.

With his talks, Grant presents a program of gospel hymns.

When he comes here Friday he will tell of his work among veterans and service men. Rev. J. A. Wilkerson, pastor of the Glad Tidings Tabernacle, will preside at the meeting.

WINTER DEFIED

LARAMIE, Wyo. —(UP)— The Union Pacific has another invention to help fight winter. A new all-weather signaling system duplicates block signals inside the cab instead of outside along the tracks.

John L. Lewis Heeds Protest

ALEXANDRIA, Va. — UP)— It took years of patient, tactful needling by the Alexandria chamber of commerce to persuade a prominent resident to paint his house.

The gaunt, weather - beaten frame building, they said, was an eyesore

Visitors and tourists were taken to the home on sightseeing tours Finally, the chamber wrote to its owner asking that he paint his house.

To the satisfaction of the city authorities painters began spreading paint on the Alexandria home of John L. Lewis, United Mine Workers chief.

File Charge With NLRB

ELYRIA — (AP) — A union yesterday charged threats and intimidations" were used against striking employes of the General Industires company if they refused to sign company-circulated petitions

The "threats," the union said, in filing an unfair labor practice charge, included "loss of employe status" if the worker refused to sign.

The Mechanics Educational Socity of American (Ind.), Local 18, accused the firm of excusing office help and foremen from regualr duty to circulate decertification petitions.

The petitions, the union asserted, attacked the local by saying it was not certified to represent the employes

Local 18 further charged the company with refusing to bargain with the union for the past two weeks over a contract dispute.

The charge, filed with the National Labor Relations board in Cleveland, cited sections of the Taft-Hartley act.

The concern makes plastic objects and small electric motors Employes walked out June 8

LEARNED TOO LATE

DETROIT — (UP) — Mary Morris, 71, had worked in a parking lot for years but never learned to drive. She finally got a beginner s permit, promptly backed into another car and lost the license for six months. It cost her $180 damages, too

Doctor Operates On Self, Wouldn't Mind Repeating

TELLURIDE, Colo — (UP) — Dr. George C Balderstom resumed his practice yesterday and said he was getting along fine after removing his own appendix

He said he performed the operation just to see how it felt.

"An appendectomy isn't as bad as most patients think it is " he said "I wouldn't mind doing it again "

Balderston, 30, said he perfomed the opeartion Sunday while working from a "near - sitting" position

Dr Richard G Gladman, Uravan, Colo , who injected a spinal anesthetic and handled the sponging, said it was "one of the smoothest operations every performed by anyone on anybody "

"I was more nervous than he was," Gladman said.

Balderston said he felt some pain during the operation, despite the spinal.

"I had to grit my teeth after I clipped the appendix," he said.

Customers' Corner

How do you like the layout of your A&P store?

Planning a super market is like putting together a jig-saw puzzle. All departments—dairy, produce, meat, baked good, coffee, groceries—must be fitted together in a way that will assure you of convenient, efficient shopping.

We try to avoid narrow or cluttered aisles, dark corners, hard-to-reach shelves and jammed up check-out stands.

Are we succeeding in your A&P? Can you locate foods you want easily? Is there good light and ample room for comfortable shopping?

If not, please let us know. We will appreciate any suggestions you may have that will help make your A&P a better place to shop.

Ancient Ford Gets Them Back Without Trouble

Youths Complete 8,372-Mile Trip In 20-Year-Old Car

By JOHN FISHER

Two Mansfield youths returned home Monday after an 8,372 miles trip in a 1929 Model - A Ford roadster.

The boys, Ralph Minich, 16 Paradise View road, and James Wheaton, 19, Mansfield, R. D 4, left Mansfield on June 26, with $200 each and the doubts of friends as to how long the car and the money would last.

But the ancient automobile traveled from coast to coast through 21 states without a bit of trouble and the boys came home with nearly two dollars to spare. They were gone exactly a month.

The model - A, owned by Wheaton, got a thorough test. The boys drove up Pikes Peak — 14,110 feet above sea level. Minich reported that they passed many new cars that were stalled on their trip up the mountain

After Pike's Peak the boys spent a couple of days at Yellowstone park They swam in the Great Salt Lake in Utah while on their way to California.

The boys stayed a week in Los Angeles and spent part of another week touring the California coast They swam in the Pacific ocean, the Gulf of Mexico, and about 10 days later they swam in the Atlantic ocean while in Florida.

Wheaton and Minich stopped off at Death Valley, the Painted Desert, New Orleans, and on the last leg of their trip, Jacksonville, Fla.

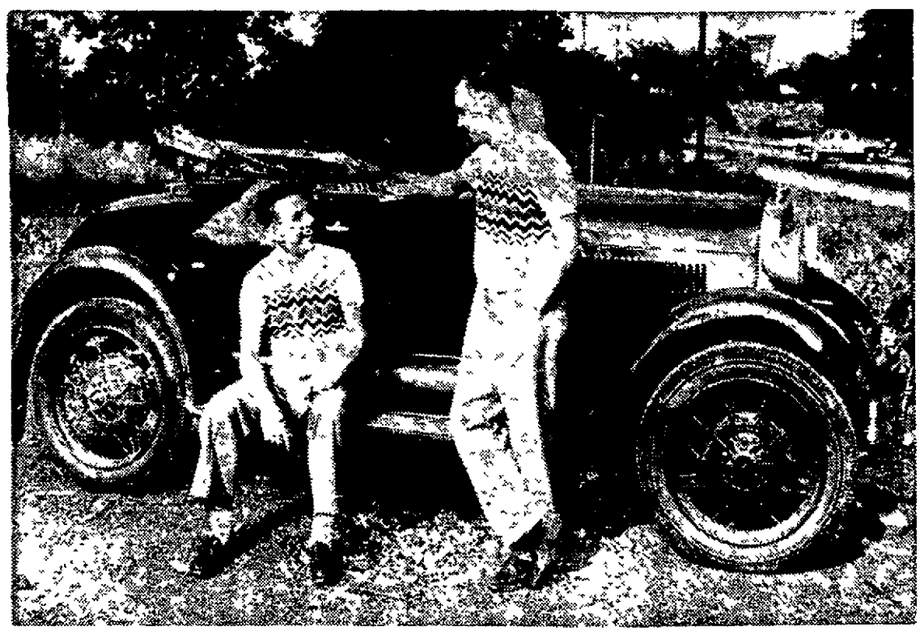
CASH RUNS LOW

They had planned to visit Washington, D. C , but their money was running low so they drove directly home from Florida

Minich got home just in time to take a vacation trip with his parents, Mr and Mrs P. W Minich and his brother, David, 11, to Niagara Falls, N Y. Ralph is expected to do a considerable amount of the driving His folks feel that he is well qualified after driving about half of the transcontinental trip in Wheaton's car

Wheaton expects to go back to work soon at the Barnes Manufacturing company. He was laid off just before he decided to take the vacation trip He was told yesterday to be ready to go back to work soon In his spare time Wheaton is tearing his car apart to put it back into condition after the 8,372 - mile - trip He thinks there must be something wrong with it, but hasn't found anything yet

Wheaton is a June, 1948 graduate of Madison high school. Minich will be a senior there next fall and after his trip to Niagara Falls should qualify as the school's most - traveled student. He also should sport the school's best coat of suntan The boys had the top down on the roadster almost all the way



WEARY TRAVELERS—Ralph Minich, 16, seated, and James Wheaton, 19, are shown with Wheaton's 1929 Model A Ford roadster, in which they made a month-long trip through 21 states and covering 8,372 miles

Slight Omission

HENRYETTA, OKLA. — (UP) —When Jack Whipps' expectant wife decided it was time to go to the hospital, he went to the garage, stowed her bag in the car and sped off. He had to turn back when he realized he had forgotten something —his wife

Green Backs Housing Aid

WASHINGTON — (AP) — AFL President William Green yesterday urged Congress to act speedily on a bill calling for $1,000,000,000 in federal loans to cooperatives for construction of moderately priced homes

The American Federation of Labor chief told a Senate banking sub-committee the big need now is to provide decent homes for those who are "too poor to afford the housing constructed by private builders and too rich to be eligible for public housing."

The bill Green endorsed is sponsored by Senator Sparkman (D Ala) One section of it would authorize $1,000,000,000 in government loans to cooperatives and other non-profit organizations

The loans would be paid back over a period of up to 60 years at the prevailing federal rate of interest (now 2½ per cent), plus one-half of one per cent for administration

"We believe," Green said "that this cooperative housing program will meet the practical test of providing decent housing that moderate income families can afford "

CAA Survey Report Claims Ohio Air Travel Increasing

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Air travel is on the upgrade in Ohio, and the increase probably will continue over a period of years, the Civil Aeronautics administration reports on the basis of a new survey

The survey showed that all of Ohio's seven leading airports had healthy increases in the number of passengers boarding planes in the first three months of 1949, as compared with the corresponding period of last year.

The figures

Cleveland 47,086 passengers in the first quarter of 1948 56,577 in the first quarter of 1949,

Cincinnati 27,751 and 37 607;

Columbus 11,837 and 15,386,

Akron 7,952 and 9,681;

Toledo 5,469 and 6,596,

Youngstown 2,589 and 3 875

"It is less surprising that there should be such good gains this year, than the fact that passenger totals carried last year were not much greater than the year before," a CAA spokesman said of the report

"This pause in a steady increase was nation-wide, and Ohio followed the national pattern The increase this year also is being experienced generally in the United States. One factor has been increased and improved service "

Planes leaving the Cleveland airport in the calendar year 1948 carried 264,029 passengers, the report said Other airports reported these totals Cincinnati 166,219, Columbus 68 887, Akron 46,152; Dayton 54 953, Toledo 32,095, and Youngstown 18,256

Endy Show Here Monday

The Endy Bros Shows and Thrill Circus one of the large carnival companies will be at the Blue Goose grounds all next week.

Traveling on 35 railroad cars the show will stop here en route from an engagement in Delaware to the Illinois State fair at Springfield where it will be the midway atraction

The carnival employs about 750 persons and has 20 rides and a score or more shows

SPEAKS THEIR LANGUAGE

LAWTON, Okla —(UP)—Ioleta H McElhaney is popular with the Kiowa Indians she serves as a missionary at the Saddle Mountain Baptist Church here—she "speaks their language." It is her language, too

Gray Eases Reich Fears

WASHINGTON — (INS) — Army Secretary Gray yesterday assured a group of German correspondents that if Russia attacked western Germany the United States would defend that area "militarily "

"That would be an act of war," Gray told 21 Germans who are touring the United States to learn democratic principles of American newspapers.

Gray added, however, that the "attack" question put to him by the German reporters was purely "hypothetical" and that he expected no such action by the Soviet. He said:

"If there was an attack on Germany I assume it would involve attacking American troops That would be an act of war. I would say American troops would fight and be so disposed as circumstances permitted to account for themselves in the best ways militarily "

Poles Blast Action By Pope Pius

Will Prosecute 'Offending' Priests

WARSAW, Poland — (UP)— The communist government yesterday denounced the vatican decree excommunicating communists as an act of "aggression" and warned Polish priests not to enforce it.

An official statement said that Minister of Public Affairs Wladislav Wolski told Roman Catholic Bishop Z. Choromansky that the pope's excommunication order "collided with standing law in Poland and thus can be neither propagated nor performed in Poland."

Wolski told the bishop that the government had agreed to a proposal by the Catholic hierarchy to start negotiations on a church-state agreement.

But he made it clear that the government would never bow to edicts which it claims are designed to undermine the united workers (communits) party.

The statement likened the Vatican decree to the North Atlantic treaty and "other politically aggressive pacts" and said it imperilled freedom of thought and ideas in an attempt to "renew the dark tradition of the medieval rights of the church against the state."

Priests were warned that the state will prosecute to the full extent of the law anyone who makes speeches or appearances that would damage the "pbulic order" or weaken the "people's democratic order."

Wolski charged that the Vatican has shown "a full understanding tolerance and a favorable attitude" toward Hitlerism and facism and was now threatening Polish Catholics with religious 'disfranchisement."

"The Vatican decree," he said, "is aimed at those on whose shoulders the brunt of the fight with fascism in the name of freedom and national independence fell—whose heroism and devotion we have to thank for the saving of the culture of the people and civilization."

Election Certified

IRONTON — (AP) — Common Pleas Judge James Collier yesterday ruled that Miss Dorothy Kennedy, a Democrat, is entitled to serve as Brown county prosecutor on the basis of her election by write-in votes.

The case had been in the courts since the November election last year. It was based on a suit filed by Angus B. Wilson, an independent, whose name was the only name appearing on the Brown county ballot for the office of prosecutor.

After the Brown county board of elections certified Miss Kennedy as elected on the basis of a write-in campaign Wilson filed suit on his contention that the new state election law did not provide for writing in names on county ballots in general elections.

Lawrence county's Judge Collier, sitting by assignment in the case upheld Wilson's contention on grounds the law was not clear. But Miss Kennedy carried the case to the Ohio Supreme Court which reversed Judge Collier and sent the case back to him to be heard on the legality of disputed write-in votes.

Landlord Reveals Plan For Children

NEWARK — (INS) — O. W. Fisher is a man who loves children. And Fisher, the head of an upholstering company is taking over 60 new houses in Newark. And in view of his own five children, Fisher says only those families with children will be able to rent from him.

Vet Jobless Claims Hold During July

Insurance Payable For This Week

Mansfield veterans drawing federal unemployment compensation will be able to draw their $20 insurance for this week, according to C. W. Handley, manager of the Local Ohio Employment Service office. The Servicemen's Readjustment act which insured unemployed veterans expired Monday. It will affect about 1,400 area veterans

Self - employed servicemen, if otherwise eligible, will be compensable for the full month of July provided a claim is made in accordance with the current procedure, Handley said.

Veterans who entered the service before July 25, 1947 and were not discharged or transferred to an inactive status until after July 25, 1947 can claim benefits until two years from the date of discharge under the SRA.

During the week ended July 23 veteran claims jumped 161 over the previous week, but the number of initial claims dropped by 66.

Mansfield still was high in the state for cities of comparable size in compensation applicants. The city tops Warren, second high, by 128 claims.

Convicts Play Santa

COLUMBUS — (UP) — Ten convicts and a guard captain at Ohio penitentiary played Santa Claus yesterday for five children of a drowning victim.

Vern Hatcher, 38, unemployed plumber, drowned Tuesday while fishing in the Scioto river. His widow and five children ranging in ages from one to 16 were left almost penniless.

A group of convicts working in the penitentiary warehouse across the street from the Hatcher home passed the hat and bought toys and ice cream for the grief - stricken youngsters.

Their mother, Mrs. Katherine Hatcher, wept.

"We always knew they were friendly, waving and joking with the children, but this little gesture means more at this time than anything in the world," she said. "I know they're convicts, but they're good - hearted men and I hope they are repaid in some way."

Excursion Planned To Baseball Game

GALION — The Retail Merchants Division of the Chamber of Commerce have announced an excursion for children, who have actively participated in playground programs during the summer, to the Cleveland Indians-Detroit Tigers baseball game in Cleveland on August 16.

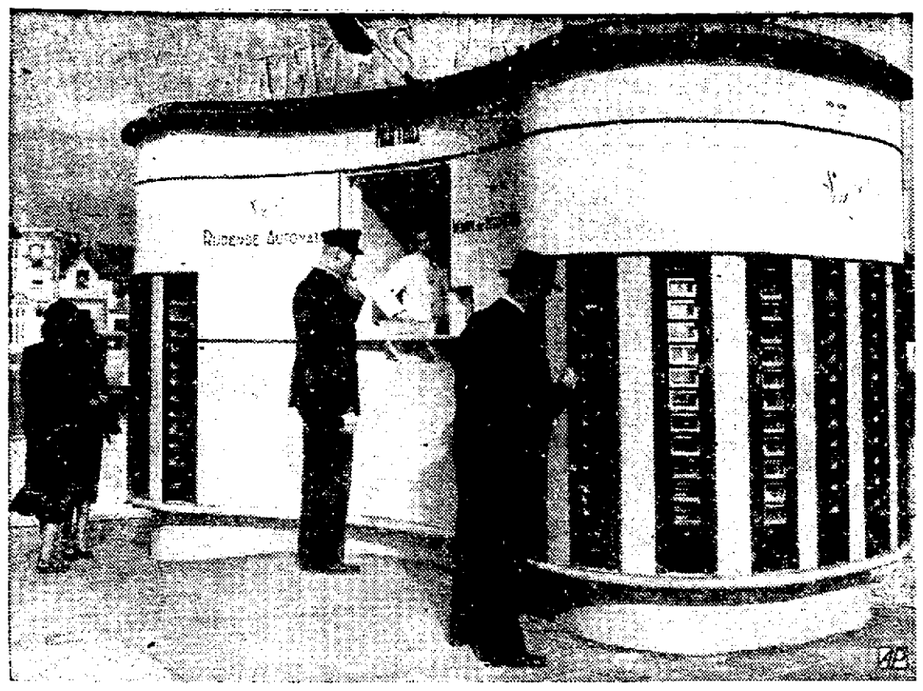
Kenneth Casey, Don Battershell, Elwood Christman, Merritt McElroy, Robert Metzger and Harold Friar compose the committee in charge of the project.

Leaves For England

WASHINGTON — (AP) — Rep. Frances Bolton (R-Ohio) leaves for England today on what she has termed "a short business trip for the House foreign affairs committee".

TRIP ENDS IN TRAGEDY

CLEVELAND — (AP) — A fishing trip by three youths ended in death for one of them last night. The victim, Jessie Batts, 8, slipped on a jetty and was drowned in Lake Erie.



SIDEWALK AUTOMAT—Hot food and sandwiches are available, with every item one kwartje (ten cents) in this outdoor automat on the beach at Zandvoort, near Amsterdam, Holland.

Find Hedge Apple Holds Stimulant

DETROIT — (UP) — The common "hedge apple," considered for centuries to have no value except as an ornament, has been discovered to contain a life - saving heart stimulant.

Three University of Western Ontaria professors, R. A. Waud, C. W. Gowdey and J. S. Loyne, report that the "hedge apple" can be used to produce a drug similar to the invaluable digitalis, without which some types of heart disease could not be treated.

SCOUTS IN LUCK

BOSTON—(UP)—For the next 50 years the Boy Scouts of Quannapowitt Council may use a 2,300-acre forest tract in Strafford, N. H., free of charge. Theodore L. Storer, former president of the Cambridge Boy Scout Council gave the council permission to use the huge woodland.

Amusement Park Cuts Krupa's Paycheck Short In Drug Case

DETROIT — —(UP)— The amusement park which booted Gene Krupa's band after a four-day stand refused yesterday to pay for the full week's engagement.

Eastwood Gardens put a lock on the door after three members of the drummer's band were arrested and pleaded guilty to narcotics charges.

"No dancing until Friday when a new band arrives," the management said.

Krupa said the cancellation was being discussed in New York by the American Federation of Musicians. His band appeared at the darkened hall Tuesday night despite the management's cancellation. Krupa sent them home.

Verle Bogue, local official of the musician's union, said none of Krupa's scheduled engagements had been cancelled. The drummer's band opens a one-night stand at Russell's Point resort in Ohio Friday, following up Saturday at Cincinnati and Buckeye Lake, near Columbus Sunday.

The nattily dressed drummer said he planned further talks with narcotics agents. They are "entirely voluntary," he said.

Band members were ousted from their hotel because of the unfavorable publicity. Krupa, who was not staying with the band, said his musicians were having trouble finding rooms.

Krupa, fired the three musicians who were caught in narcotics raids Sunday and Monday.

Krupa, involved in a similar case six years ago, said he had fired the men under a clause in their contracts forbidding "unbecoming conduct and the use of stimulants."
